SHAH OF PERSIA ARRIVES ON BRITISH SOIL.

BOER LEADERS TO LEAVE

DEWET, BOTHA AND DELAREY TO GO TO BRUSSELS.

London, Aug. 18.—The shah of Persia, Muzafar-Ed-Din, and his suite, who arrived at Dover yesterday, reached London today and took up their residence at Marlborough house as guests of King Edward. In accordance with the Persian monarch's express wish the train from Dover only traveled twenty miles an hour. He, therefore, had plenty of time to array himself in full state uniform, and when he left the train at Victoria station he was resplendent in a blaze of diamonds. On his tarboosh (cap) a huge diamond stood out like a headlight, his epaulettes were adorned with large emeralds and his breast was covered with jewels of all kinds. The gems worn by the members of the shah's suite were only a little less rich than those of his majesty. The prince of Wales, Lord Lansdowne, the foreign minister; Lord Roberts, the commander-in-chief, and the members of the Persian legation and others met the royal traveler at the station. The prince of Wales and the shah shook hands and the visitor was introduced to the prominent persons present. The prince of Wales subsequently conducted the shah to a royal carriage and they drove off escorted by a detachment of life guards and followed by other carriages. The route to Marlborough house was lined with troops. The weather was miserable, so the sightseers were not numerous.

BOERS GO TO BRUSSELS.

London, Aug. 18.—The Boer generals, Botha, De Wet and Delarey, start for Brussels tonight. After Saturday's experience they are not willing to again face the ordeal of a British crowd, so the generals chartered a special steamer and are keeping the railroad station where they will entrain and their port of sailing a secret.

Captain O'Donnell, who served on De Wet's staff throughout the war, starts immediately for America in order to prepare the way for the visit of the generals. He says that altogether about 500 Americans and 500 Irishmen were with the Boer forces.

THE NAVAL MANEUVERS.

The naval maneuvers in the Solent today were marred by the weather. Torrents of rain and half a gale of wind drove the spectators from the sea front and it was noon instead of 10 o'clock when the royal yacht Victoria and Albert left Cowes and took King Edward through the lines of the fleet. Subsequently an array of battleships and cruisers to the number of nearly eighty formed in two columns and passed on either side of the Victoria and Albert. All the war vessels manned ship as they passed the royal yacht.

Late in the afternoon the Boer generals left their hotel and proceeded to the docks to embark on the steamer Batavier, bound for Rotterdam. In spite of the secrecy of their movements a large crowd awaited the generals and cheered the departing visitors.

The members of the committee of the synod of Michigan will reach the city tonight and the next two days will be spent in preparations for the program of the general meeting. The opening address Thursday morning will be delivered by Rev. Dr. Schuette, of Columbus, O., president of the synod. Dr. Mees, president of the Teachers' seminary at Woodville, O., will speak on Friday. About two hundred ministerial and lay delegates will attend the sessions of the synod.

PRETTY CRAFT IS LAUNCHED.

The handsome new launch just built by the T. J. Kehoe Boat company of this city for E. W. Cook was taken to Rome City Saturday afternoon and yesterday the craft was launched in Sylvan lake. The launch is one of the prettiest on the lake and behaved handsomely on its initial spin. It is named the "Flora," in honor of Mr. Cook's young daughter.

NOW IRREMOVABLE RECTORS

REV. J. F. DELANEY AND REV. F. KOERDT HONORED.

Bishop Alerding Advances Two Fort Wayne Parishes—Came as Pleasing Surprise.

Two more of the Catholic parishes in Fort Wayne have been advanced to the grade of irremovable rectorship—St. Patrick's and St. Peter's. The elevation was determined upon several days ago by Rt. Rev. Bishop Alerding, but the announcement was deferred until yesterday, when at the morning service the gratifying news was given out to the two congregations by the pastors, Rev. J. F. Delaney and Rev. Ferdinand Koerdt.

Previous to this time but one other parish in the city has been an irremovable rectorship—that of St. Mary's and the honor is one that is conferred on a congregation only after a demonstration of strength, loyalty, advancement and devotion. St. Patrick's parish is but eleven years old, but it has from the first demonstrated that it is one of the strongest parishes in the diocese.

The honor which thus comes to Rev. Father Delaney is a signal one, for the popular priest is one of the youngest men ever elevated to this dignity in the Fort Wayne diocese. Father Delaney was born at Thompsonville, Conn., and is yet under forty years of age. He was educated at St. Vincent's seminary in Latrobe, Pa., ordained for the Fort Wayne diocese sixteen years ago, and was for five years assistant pastor at the Cathedral. Eleven years ago, when St. Patrick's parish was formed, Bishop Dwenger placed Rev. Father Delaney at its head, and regardless of numerous offers of other pastorates, the gifted young clergyman has preferred to remain with his first parish.

Rev. Ferdinand Koerdt, of St. Peter's church, who shares with Rev. Father Delaney the honors of the day, is also very popular with his people and has been singularly successful in his religious work. He was born in Westphalia, Germany, in 1853, studied at Paderborn and the Royal academy of Muenster, completing his theological education at St. Mary's seminary in Cincinnati. He was ordained in Fort Wayne in 1876, and was at once appointed to the church at Sheldon. Here he remained until called by Bishop Dwenger to the pastorate at St. Peter's. Under his guidance the handsome church and school buildings have been erected and the congregation is in a most prosperous condition. Father Koerdt's announcement to his congregation Sunday was received with unalloyed pleasure.

PLAN A PROGRAM

FOR COURT HOUSE DEDICATION CEREMONIES.

TENTATIVE FORM ARRANGED

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE TAKES UP WORK TODAY.

MANY DETAILS DISCUSSED

CHAS. M'CULLOCH TO RECEIVE BUILDING FOR PEOPLE.

The executive committee, chosen a few days ago by the county commissioners to aid in planning and directing the dedication of the Allen county court house in September, met this morning to begin the work of arranging for the big event. With the exception of a brief adjournment at the noon hour the committee has been continuously in session at the court house during the entire day.

Their task is not a small one, and it involves the consideration of a thousand details that might not occur to the casual citizen, but which are nevertheless matters of vital importance to the symmetry and harmony of so splendid an event as the dedication is to be. Those present today included S. M. Foster, Alexander Johnson, Hon. W. P. Breen, Capt. A. H. Dougall, Fred M. Smith, Chairman Orff, of the board of commissioners, Commissioners Schnitker and Moudy, and County Attorney Barrett. An organization was effected by the election of Samuel M. Foster as chairman of the executive committee, and Capt. A. H. Dougall as secretary.

No additional information has reached the commissioners regarding the visit of President Roosevelt, and the committee is proceeding upon the presumption that the executive will reach Fort Wayne at 6:30 o'clock on the evening of Tuesday, September 23. Acting upon the most reliable advices now at hand, the committee has today draughted a tentative program for the dedication, and this will be followed so far as may be possible.

THE PROGRAM OUTLINED.

It is decided that the dedication ceremonies will begin at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, the speakers and distinguished guests to occupy an elaborate speakers' stand which will be erected at the southeast corner of the court house square. The program in outline as now framed is as follows:

Meeting called to order by Charles E. Orff, president of the board of county commissioners.
Invocation.
Formal tender of building to the people on behalf of the county commissioners by County Attorney James M. Barrett.
Formal reception of building on behalf of the people of Allen county by Hon. Charles McCulloch, presiding officer of the day.
Music.
Historical address by Col. R. S. Robertson.
Oration by Hon. W. Bourke Cockran.
Benediction.

EVENING PROGRAM.

Address by Governor W. T. Durbin.
Address by President Roosevelt.
Music.
Public reception to President Roosevelt, Governor Durbin and distinguished guests.

NAMING COMMITTEES.

This afternoon the executive committee is making the appointment of the various sub-committees which will be in charge of various departments of the dedication ceremony. These include a committee on invitation, a committee to receive the president, another to receive the governor of the state and a third for the judiciary of the state, besides several other committees.

Engravers are now at work upon the invitations, which will be out within the next few days, and these are to be sent to a long list of distinguished citizens of Indiana, including every member of the supreme and appellate court benches, and every circuit and superior judge in the state.

The railroads have granted a rate of one and one-third fare for the round trip for this occasion and it is expected to bring to Fort Wayne one of the largest audiences ever seen in the city.

THE RECEPTION.

The evening addresses by President Roosevelt and Governor Durbin are to be delivered from the stand at the southeast corner of the building. While the speaking is in progress the court house will be cleared of spectators and kept free until the close of the president's address. At the conclusion the [illegible] a dias at the grand staircase, the president and Governor Durbin, with other distinguished visitors, will receive the public. During this ceremony, no visitors will be permitted on the upper floors of the building. At the close of the reception, however, the entire building will be thrown open, brilliantly illuminated, for the inspection of the public.

HUSBAND DIED SUDDENLY.

Mrs. Loise Elixman, of Westend, N. J., who has been in the city for some days on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. August Wulf, of Parnell avenue, received the distressing news that her husband had died suddenly at a hotel at Westend. No additional particulars were given and friends hastened eastward at once to take charge of the funeral arrangements.

HALF-HOUR SERVICE IN SIGHT

SOUTHWESTERN SMASHED ALL RECORDS YESTERDAY.

Interurban Hauled 5,562 Passengers —Sunday Service Will Probably be Increased.

All previous passenger records of the Fort Wayne and Southwestern Traction company were smashed yesterday when the interurban line did by far the largest passenger business of any day in its history.

A total of 5,562 passengers were carried over its lines between Fort Wayne and Wabash, and this is nearly two thousand in excess of the business of any previous day. It is a remarkable showing, and the more gratifying because there were no accidents and no delays aside from those unavoidably occasioned in handling so great a crowd of people. All day long the cars were heavily loaded.

The result of the day's business is a determination upon the part of the company to increase the carrying capacity of the line in order to better handle the Sunday crowds. Manager Nelson said this morning that he would probably institute a thirty-minute service each Sunday hereafter during the summer season, instead of the hourly service which has been in vogue. The company intends to take proper care of all business that comes its way, and yesterday's crowds practically went to the limit of the hourly service.

LOOKING TO WARREN.

R. D. Smith, right-of-way man for the Southwestern company, was in the city today. Mr. Smith has been securing the right-of-way between Huntington and Warren for the new line projected to Warren, and says the work has progressed nicely. Within a short time Mr. Nelson, acting for the Fort Wayne and Southwestern Traction company, will apply for a franchise through the town of Warren.

LOCAL LINES.

Mrs. W. R. Suttenfield has returned from a visit to her husband at Bryan, Ohio.

A called meeting of Home lodge, F. & A. M., will be held on Tuesday evening.

WILL GO ABROAD

CHARLES M. SCHWAB TO SEEK HEALTH IN RETIREMENT.

TRUST MAGNATE COLLAPSES

HAS DIVORCED HIMSELF FROM ALL BUSINESS.

REFUSES TO SEE VISITORS

BUSINESS ASSOCIATES NOT ALLOWED TO APPROACH.

Pittsburg, Pa., Aug. 18.—A Loretto, Pa., special to the Pittsburg Dispatch says:

President Charles M. Schwab, of the United States Steel corporation, has accepted the advice of physicians and decided to retire indefinitely from an active business life. He will leave America to seek some quiet nook in a foreign clime where not an echo of the strenuous life he has led can reach him. This information is authentic.

Dr. Golden never leaves the Schwab home and the exact nature of his patient's illness cannot be learned through him.

Mr. Schwab is not confined to his bed, but spends much of his time on the wide veranda, which affords fresh air and a sweeping view of the mountain slope. He is always with his wife or his parents.

WILL SEE NO ONE.

The strange part of Mr. Schwab's illness is that he is always within view of those who call at his house, yet he will not allow any person to approach him. Heretofore the visitor to the Schwab home was greeted with a hearty welcome and a vigorous handshake. Now the visitor is met at the entrance and told that Mr. Schwab cannot be seen. Intimates of the family receive the same message and none has been able to converse with President Schwab since he came back to his home.

The correspondent then says:

"The people of this town, who still call him 'Charlie,' because of their early and intimate acquaintance with him, are discussing his prospective departure. They know he is a sick man and are relieved that he will spend possibly a year in an effort to regain his health.

"The presence of sisters belonging to the Order of Mercy in his home day and night since Thursday was another indication of illness. The nuns were not visitors, but it is generally known that they are nursing the man who has so many times befriended them and their institutions.

"The knowledge of the people of Loretto is that Mr. Schwab is going away somewhere. His destination will be kept a secret and he will do nothing but seek health until his nerves have been restored to their normal condition and his mind fully relieved of the great strain resulting from so many business cares.

BUSINESS IS BANISHED.

"It was after learning that his health was very bad and that he intended to devote a year's time to recuperating that I passed into the grounds leading to the palatial home on the mountain top.

"Mrs. Schwab said that her husband would not see any person and had not been receiving visitors for several days.

"Mr. Schwab sat on a couch within hearing of our voices. A paper was before his eyes. He exhibited no interest and made no attempt to move.

"Business associates, it is said, have met with a similar reception during the past two days. Mr. Schwab has been directed by his doctors to rid his mind of all business cares and he is obeying the orders religiously.

"Inquiry among the people of the town who have conversed with the Schwabs fully corroborated the stories that he intends to retire from active business life. His friends, however, deny that if he leaves the United States Steel corporation it will be at the dictation of any person other than himself."

FRICKE MAY SUCCEED SCHWAB.

New York, Aug. 18.—The retirement of Charles M. Schwab from the presidency of the United States Steel corporation is now commonly accepted as determined upon, notwithstanding official denials and present reluctance in official circles to confirm the report. President Schwab's impaired health is the reason for this Well-informed persons say that his retirement will be followed by extensive changes in the membership of the organization. The successor to the presidency is a matter of surmise only [illegible] if it has been decided it can be had on the [illegible] subject. But ther are many positions of importance in the United States Steel corporation now held by persons who are there on account of personal ties with Mr. Schwab and who remained with the corporation from a devotion to his interests, growing from former association in the Carnegie company. It has been reported that the presidency would pass to James Gayley, the first vice president of the corporation. Other rumors have pointed to H. C. Frick.

GOES TO DAILY NEWS.

Charles B. Lane, the well known newspaper man, will on September 1 become a member of the staff of the Fort Wayne Daily News. Mr. Lane was at one time editor of the Fort Wayne Gazette and more recently has been holding the position of oil inspector and acting as correspondent for a number of metropolitan newspapers. He is well known and is a newspaper man of marked ability, and his return to the newspaper ranks will be warmly welcomed.

REPUBLICANS WILL CONFER

MEETING IN FORT WAYNE NEXT SATURDAY.

State Chairman Goodrich, Nominees and Committeemen Will Come to Talk it Over.

Republican officials, committeemen, state and county nominees will meet in Fort Wayne next Saturday for a conference over the political situation, and incidentally it is expected that the local management will be given a few tips by the state organization.

The meeting is to be held at republican headquarters, recently opened in rooms 14 and 15, Arcade, and Chairman Harris has sent calls requesting the presence of all the county and township nominees and every man on the county central committee. State Chairman J. P. Goodrich, of Winchester, will be on hand, as will also District Chairman Leonard, Nat U. Hill, of Bloomington, the nominee for treasurer of state, and Charles W. Miller, of Goshen, the candidate for attorney general. C. C. Gilhams, the congressional nominee, will participate in the deliberations. The conference is set for 2 o'clock.

TICKET IS COMPLETED.

The republican township committee has made selections to complete the Wayne township ticket as follows:

For Members of Advisory Board—Charles W. Fairfield, Clark Fairbank and Samuel D. Bitler.

CHANCES GOOD FOR ANOTHER

Large Plumbers' Supply House Likely to Locate Here—Steel Works is Assured.

Officials of the Commercial Improvement company state that negotiations for the location of still another factory in Fort Wayne have reached such an advanced stage that it is practically certain that the second factory in the new industrial addition at the southwestern edge of the city will be a big concern that will manufacture plumbers' supplies and specialties of that character.

As the result of several weeks' effort the plans are now so far advanced that it is believed the contract for this factory can be closed this week. One hundred men are to be given employment from the first, and a building 50x22 feet, three stories in height, will be necessary, in addition to engine rooms and other additional buildings.

The sale of lots by which funds are to be secured to locate the new steel casting plant has been very successful and the final contract with the company is to be signed up today. This means that work upon the buildings will begin very soon. It is probable that instead of removing the Montpelier plant here, Mr. Huffmann and his associates will place an entire new factory in Fort Wayne.

Topic for Aug. 17: "The Life of Faith;" Gen. 12:1-5; Heb. 11:1-6.

When William Marconi, sitting among his instruments on the eastern coast of Newfoundland, with the great skeleton tower of wires rising high into the air, waited confidently for his first message across the broad Atlantic by wireless telegraphy, waited—and got it, he furnished to all time a noble illustration of faith in an unseen reality.

For it was a reality. He knew for a certainty, not only from former experiments, but from the laws of science, that the message would come pulsing across the sea along that untracked course. He was running no risk, taking no chances. The fact that he was depending on things invisible made no difference. They were substantial things just the same. They proved their reality by the event.

And so when a message from God comes to the believer's soul, though God is unseen and the message unrecorded, save upon the unseen tables of his heart, none the less—not one particle the less—does the believer perfectly confide in it. Messages have come in just the same way before. They have told him things that have afterwards come to pass. They have proved their truth and their divine origin. He has come to have implicit faith in them, and in the method of getting them.

Nothing can do more for a person than this reliance on an unseen world. It more than doubles his resources. It adds the other and greater world to this, and makes him master of both. Just as Marconi, the master of wireless telegraphy, added Europe to America, so faith adds God to man and heaven to earth.

And there needs no instrument, not even a tower of wires and a battery. The experiment can be made in any heart, in any life. Shall we not make it in ours?—The C. E. World.

Overworked Backs

Being Relieved in Fort Wayne.

You say it's from overwork when you're all tired out from sitting at your desk all day long, from sticking right to it no matter what your daily task may be. You go home with a torturous ache in the small of the back, with sharp pains in the loins. The kidneys rebel at overwork and the many aches and pains tell you they are sick.

Doan's Kidney Pills

Set the kidneys right again; remove the ache by curing the cause; cure every kidney ill from common backache to diabetes. Read this Fort Wayne proof:—

Mr. C. J. Noll, of 115 Barthold street, butcher employed at H. Strodel's meat market, says: "When I was working in Frenchtown an attack of kidney disorder got hold of me and though I tried every known remedy I was unable to get rid of it. I heard about Doan's Kidney Pills and got a box at Meyer & Co.'s drug store. Before I took these pills I was greatly troubled with backache. I could not rest at night in only one position, and when I was up it was almost impossible to stoop. The kidney secretions were discolored, had a bad odor and at times I grew very dizzy. I commenced feeling better as soon as I started taking Doan's Kidney Pills and by the time I had finished the first box I was entirely cured"

FAMOUS LAWYER IS NO MORE

VENERABLE LUTHER R. MARSH DIES IN NEW YORK.

Former Partner of Daniel Webster in Practice of Law—Was Famous as a Spiritualist.

New York, Aug. 16.—Luther R. Marsh, the venerable jurist and famous spiritualist, breathed his last at 5:15 p. m. yesterday at his home in Middletown, N. Y. Mr. Marsh had been in feeble health for the last month, and for the last three weeks had taken no solid food. His death was due to stomach trouble and general debility. Half an hour before the end came Mr. Marsh lapsed into unconsciousness, breathing shorter and shorter until the heart ceased its action.

Mr. Marsh's last public appearance on the platform was nearly two months ago, when he delivered an address in Beth-Jacob Synagogue, Newburg, at the request of Rabbi Elkins. Mr. Marsh's last illness was hastened by his attempting to do too much work of late.

ENDS REMARKABLE CAREER.

The death of Mr. Marsh ends the earthly career of one who in his day was a distinguished member of the New York bar. He was among the first in his profession. So great was his fame that Daniel Webster became his law partner after leaving Tyler's cabinet, and one of Mr. Marsh's cherished possessions was the old-fashioned office sign—a bit of black tin, bearing Mr. Webster's name in gilt.

By his own genius Mr. Marsh rose from the practice of a country attorney to counsellor in great cases involving millions and becoming precedents in American jurisprudence. He was born in 1813 in Pompey, N. Y., of good Puritan stock, his ancestors being among the first settlers of Massachusetts. Mr. Marsh early won distinction for his skill and eloquence in difficult cases. His mastery of technicalities attracted the attention of the officers of the Erie railway, and he became its counsel.

FAMOUS AS AN ORATOR.

He came to New York in 1841, and was soon recognized as a man of power. His oration at the opening of the world's fair in the new Crystal Palace gave him national reputation. He held his high position as a leader of the New York bar for fifty-two years. He was ardently devoted to building up the city. Among his reforms was the abolition of burying the dead in the city.

He drew the act of 1883 for enlarging the New York public park system to 3,840 acres. He was president of the park commission created by a special act of legislature, appraising property to the value of $10,000,000. He was naturally proud of his work, especially in obtaining what was then considered vast tracts of land for the city without expense. He bought so much property that the surplus advancing in price paid for the entire purchase. Thus the city had its park domain free of cost.

VICTIM OF DISS DE BAR.

In view of Mr. Marsh's extraordinary accomplishments it is beyond explanation how he became a victim of the notorious Diss De Bar, who not only made him believe, but was presently in possession of his valuable brown stone residence on Madison avenue. It was the turning point of his life, however.

found his friends uncompromisingly against him in his unreasoning acceptance of Diss De Bar's spiritualism. It was afterwards confessed that the Diss De Bar pictures were as fraudulent as the seances that produced them.

Finding himself ostracized, so to speak, Mr. Marsh received an invitation from Mrs. Huyler, the wife of John Huyler, of Middletown, N. Y., to visit them and investigate her claims of communication with the dead. That was twelve years ago. Mr. Marsh, discouraged and lonely, accepted and remained there until his death.

FAITH IN THE SEANCES.

Under the Huyler roof seances were held from week to week, believers coming from all parts of the union, and Mr. Marsh declared that all the communications were absolutely genuine, and masterpieces of literature. Among them were messages from Adelaide Neilson, with whom Mr. Marsh was infatuated. His regard for her amounted to a passion.

Mr. Marsh differed from the majority of spiritualists regarding orthodox religion. He was a firm believer in the scriptures, especially in the New Testament, and in defense of the divine plan of redemption he was an earnest advocate.

HAD A BIG CROWD

THOUSANDS HEARD MRS. NATION AT ROBISON PARK.

JOINT SMASHER LECTURES

SAYS THE LORD INSPIRED HER TO BEGIN CRUSADE.

BLAMES BOTH OLD PARTIES

SAYS BREWERS CONTROL THE GOVERNMENT.

Mrs. Carrie Nation has come and gone leaving no wrecks of saloons in her wake. The appearance of the Kansas "joint smasher" in Fort Wayne was an interesting but in no wise strenuous event.

Mrs. Nation delivered two addresses to large audiences at Robison park yesterday afternoon and late last night a third address of impromptu sort to a good-sized crowd that blocked South Calhoun street in front of the Commercial hotel, where Mrs. Nation was a guest during her stay in Fort Wayne.

Mrs. Nation arrived in Fort Wayne over the Lake Erie and Western at 11 o'clock Sunday. A large crowd greeted her at the depot and she pushed her way through the mass of humanity to a cab with some difficulty. Some shouting and numerous questions gave vociferousness to the reception, but the shouting she did not mind and the questions she answered with quite good humor. To one inquirer she vouchsafed the confidential information that she had not brought her hatchet. But she added, with a grim smile, "I brought an ax."

BIG CROWD HEARS HER.

Mrs. Nation had her dinner and a nap in her room at the hotel. At 3 o'clock a special car took Mrs. Nation to Robison park. Curious crowds lined the streets as the car sped on and at the park a tremendous crowd was assembled about the terminal.

At the band stand on the promontory Mrs. Nation found a still larger crowd and she had some trouble to get through it to the stand. There was some delay waiting until the theater should discharge its crowd and many in the assemblage displayed impatience, some of them in a very coarse fashion. Mrs. Nation begged those men who were smoking to get on the fringe of the audience or swallow their smoke, tossing out a verbal crumb of comfort, at the close of the recitation of some rather bad verses against smoking, to the effect that she had observed men in this world usually do what they would do in the next.

There was another brief wait and Mrs. Nation then began her address. The crowd meantime had continued to grow and when Mrs. Nation faced her audience for the real business of the occasion it embraced several thousand persons, a majority being women.

JUSTIFIES JOINT-SMASHING.

Mrs. Nation, in speaking of the joint-smashing exploits in Kansas that gave her fame, said that she had a right to conduct her crusade. The laws of Kansas made liquor saloons a nuisance and a nuisance was something anybody who suffered from it had a right to abate. The supreme court of the United States had held that a man had a right to destroy a tannery worth $60,000 because it was a menace to the health of his family. Much greater, then, was the right to destroy the saloon which was a menace to the lives and souls of the men and the boys.

Mrs. Nation discussed the Fort Wayne saloons rather in their relation to the whole abstract question of temperance and prohibition rather than as specific instances of the liquor evil.

"You can't have safety for the men and the boys and have the saloons, too. Have you safety here—have you? I say not. On your main streets you have a hundred and more saloons, criminal factories, every last one of them, that are dragging down the husbands and fathers and sons down in the awful hell of drink."

ALLUDES TO M'KINLEY.

Mrs. Nation then went on to discuss the political aspects of the drink traffic and in the course of her remarks made allusions to the late President McKinley that brought forth some signs of displeasure from many in the audience. Some hisses and cries of "Cut it out," "You are wrong," and the like interrupted the speaker.

"The brewers control this government," stoutly asserted Mrs. Nation, "and they control the republican party and they controlled Mr. McKinley. I am right, I am right. I represent the desolated motherhood of this country and I went with a petition to Mr. McKinley to abolish the canteen in the army, to do away with the traffic that inflicts worse than death on our sons whom we give to the army, but the canteen did not go until congress made it go. I am willing to wager that the men here who say 'Cut it out' are the friends of the brewer."

INSPIRED BY THE LORD.

Mrs. Nation then gave some account of her joint-smashing career in Kansas.

"We have a prohibition law in Kansas, but the republican office-holders did not want to enforce it. I went to every officer from the governor to the constables to have them enforce the law in our county, but they laughed me to scorn. At the time there was a plot on foot to get the legislature to have the question resubmitted to the people in the hope that prohibition would be wiped out of the state constitution. And the laws were allowed to be unheeded and the joints to spring up and pollute the state so that it could be proved prohibition would not work. I said that as a Christian and God-fearing woman I would not stand it. Everybody said, 'You can't, you can't, you can't;' but I said I could do all things with the aid of Jesus Christ. I went to God with my cause and said, 'O, Lord, if the sacrifice of one woman, if the life of one poor, helpless servant is necessary to save the homes of this state I lay this life at Your feet.' God said to me, 'You go and smash them and I will stand by you.'

CLAIMS NO CREDIT.

"The Lord did it. I was only His instrument. Many people say to me: 'How did you come to think of it; what put the idea into your head of going out to smash the joints?' Why, my good friends, it was not my idea, it was the Lord's. I do not deserve any credit for it. The Lord just put it into my head and told me to do it and I went forth with my hatchet and my rocks and smashed 'em."

Mrs. Nation said she had been in seven jails and that an effort was made to have her declared insane so she might be locked up. She had been placed, she said, in a cell in one jail with an insane man on one side of her and three cigarette smokers on the other that she might be driven insane.

CALLS THEM HYPOCRITES.

Mrs. Nation paid her respects to the barkeepers and saloon men in a rather kindly spirit. It was to be expected, she said, that they would be what they are. They did not pretend to be anything else. But the deacons in the churches and the loud-praying members in the amen corner who continued to vote for the whisky parties were hypocrites and worse than barkeepers, saloon men and brewers, for they pretended to be the servants of Jesus Christ and partners of the Lord in the regeneration of the world.

Mrs. Nation said she had often been asked why she cut the pictures of nude women and smashed the undraped statuary of women in saloons. It was insult, she said, to her sex, to display the nakedness of the pictured female form in a saloon. "A saloon is not a fit place for a woman to go into with her clothes on, yet some of the saloonkeepers want to strip a woman and show her nakedness to the whisky drinkers."

ASSAILS OLD PARTIES.

Mrs. Nation was particularly vigorous in denouncing the republican party which she said pretended to be a morality party, but allowed the saloons to control it. She later paid somewhat the same tribute to the democratic party. There were many good men in both parties, she declared, but the parties were dominated by the liquor traffic and neither would ever save the country from the great curse that was bound to ruin the nation in time.

At the close of her afternoon address Mrs. Nation held an informal reception at the band stand, kneeling down and shaking hands through the railing with several hundred persons who crowded forward to meet her. Most of her callers were women.

SLY SHOT AT DAVID.

Before the opening of Mrs. Nation's address at the park Sunday afternoon a little incident evoked from the famous woman a sly shot at her divorced husband, David Nation. G. W. Mann, of 136 Washington boulevard, has in his possession portions of an old scrap book made many years ago by his mother, then a resident of Henry county, Indiana. David Nation, afterwards husband of the famous crusader, was then teacher of the country school attended by Mr. Mann's mother, and in the scrap book is an address written by Nation on the occasion of the closing of school. Below it in his handwriting is the inscription, "David Nation, February 15, 1852, Jefferson School House, District No. 6, Henry County, Ind."

Mr. Mann believed the famous Carrie might be interested in the souvenir and he fought his way through the crowd and gave it to her, with a word of explanation concerning the history of the old document. Mrs. Nation adjusted her glasses, glanced hurriedly over the time-seared pages, and handed it back with the remark:

"Yes, I suppose it is interesting, but it is of more interest to him than to me."

BAD FIRE IN MAUMEE.

While Mr. and Mrs. William Decker, of Maumee township, were spending Sunday with friends in Adams county, leaving the children and the hired man in charge of things at home, fire destroyed all the barns and outbuildings on the farm. The fire started about 11 o'clock Sunday morning. In the barns were much hay and about 1,000 bushels of grain, which had just been harvested. Thirteen head of hogs and some farming implements were also burned. The origin of the fire is unknown. The loss will be very heavy as Mr. Decker carried but little insurance.

NOT OVER WISE.

There is an old allegorical picture of a girl scared at a grass-hopper, but in the act of heedlessly treading on a snake. This is paralleled by the man who spends a large sum of money building a cyclone cellar, but neglects to provide his family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a safeguard against bowel complaints, whose victims outnumber those of the cyclone a hundred to one. This remedy is everywhere recognized as the most prompt and reliable medicine in use for these diseases. For sale by all druggists. 8-14-2m

CASHED SOME BAD CHECKS.

(Hotel World.)

F. E. Purcell, of Brown & Purcell, proprietors of the Hotel Rich, Fort Wayne, Ind., writes that they have been caught by a man claiming to sell oil stock. After being at the hotel a few days the hotel cashed a check for $35, made against the Cleveland National bank. Two days later they cashed another for the party, who wished to purchase a Panama hat for his niece, whom he reported was red headed, and lived in South Bend. Since his departure the hotel has heard nothing of him, but the checks, like the cat in the topical song, came back, with protest fees attached. He is described as being about 55 or 60 years of age, wore glasses, light clothes, blue eyes and possessed of a voice like a chicken. He is about 5 feet 4 inches tall. The hotel would like to hear both of the man and the red-headed niece, for whose Panama they yielded up thirty good dollars.

IN NORTHERN INDIANA.

Bluffton is swaggering a bit because the new Clover Leaf depot has been completed. It is very pretty and cost $6,000.

Dr. A. W. Smith, a well known veterinary surgeon of Wells county, has purchased the Craig house at Ossian and will become a Boniface.

Logansport Elks will build a handsome new home, for which purpose they have $25,000 on hand, largely the proceeds of the late carnival. A company has been organized.

Dennis Brophy, who was defeated in his effort to get a license to run a saloon in Roanoke, has been conducting his place on the "club house" plan. He has been arrested for selling liquor without a license.

The Elkhart Truth says the Bell Telephone company is preparing to withdraw from the field in that city, with the exception of the long-distance business. The Bell exchange is now said to serve but few more than 200 patrons.

Workmen who are grading for the track of the electric line between Wabash and Logansport are unearthing scores of old mule shoes, which have been buried since the abandonment of the old Wabash and Erie canal many years ago.

Van Buren is likely to have another newspaper. Some time ago the News printed an item warning parents to keep away from town because it was—well, much like the dominion of King Beelzebub. Citizens are indignant, hence the likelihood of a new newspaper.

The "devil" of the Union Mills News, according to an editorial announcement in that paper, "got gay" and inserted a paragraph to the effect that the editor was going away to Michigan to be married. It was not true and the editor had to explain.

Pat O'Conner is receiving a hero's meed of worship in Logansport. Saturday evening he saw a small boy on the Wabash railway bridge and a train bearing down upon the little fellow. O'Conner rushed to the boy's aid and set him out of danger. He had not time to reach a place of safety himself and was forced to jump. He plunged fifty feet to the water, suffering a compound fracture of the hip.

HORSESHOERS' OUTING.

The second annual field meet and picnic of the local Horseshoers' association at Centlivre park Saturday, was in all respects a success and the members and their families, together with a large crowd of interested friends, enjoyed the occasion. The first all-round prize in the athletic events was won by J. P. Freiburger, of this city, and the second by A. Van Arsdol, of Roanoke. The event about which interest centered was the race between the great stallion Atlantic King and Heirloom, the Centlivre horse winning both heats. J. P. Freiburger won the shooting match and William Schieferstein was second. The contests resulted as follows:

Hammer throw—Won by Freiburger; distance, 69 feet, 2 inches.

The trotting race resulted as follows: Seibold, 1, 1; Geary, 2, 2; Zurbaugh, 3, 3. Time—1:20, 1:19¼.

In the exhibition race Atlantic King won both heats in 1:11¼ and 1:05½.

Standing broad jump—Won by Van Arsdol; distance, 9 feet, 7 inches.

One-mile handicap bicycle race—Gebhart, first; Freiburger, second; Miller, of Huntington, third. Time—3:03.

Potato race—Won by Van Arsdol.

100-yard dash—Won by Freiburger; time, 11⅛ seconds.

Fifty-yard dash for fat men—Won by McGrath; time, 6½ seconds.

J. Jamie's horse won the half-mile novelty race. Each man drove the other's horse and the last horse under the wire won the race.

Barner's orchestra furnished the music for the occasion and immediately after the field sports were over the crowd went to the grove, where dancing and a large supper helped to pass away the time.

FAMILIAR FACE AT THE BAR

IN THIS CASE POLICE COURT BAR IS MEANT.

Other Kind Visited Previously—Mike Koehler Goes Over—The News of the Police.

Judge Dreibelbiss had just an even odd of three to dispose of at police court this morning. The first to answer the call was Michael Koehler, who was slated for drunkenness. It has been a long time since the voluble Mike allowed the policemen to beat him to cover, but he was in for it this morning. He pleaded guilty and not having the necessary wherewithal he went over temporarily. It is a safe proposition, however, that Mike will be out before night. He has the happy faculty of always being able to produce a friend who has the necessary eleven.

The Friday family, of the Sixth ward, was in evidence again this morning. This time it was Henry who strenuously denied having been drunk. The evidence was too strong for him, however, and he went over for 11 days.

John Haskell was the next name called. Mr. Haskell protested at the outrage and said that he had not been drinking. The judge was inclined to give him the limit, but upon the intercession of friends, who said that he was making preparations to leave town the sentence was fixed at 11 days, so as to give him an opportunity to get straightened up and make his escape as a sober man at the expiration of his term. It is not quite certain that he will not be released sooner if his arrangements for emigration can be completed in the meantime.

POLICE NOTES.

William Carr, of Huntington, was arrested at 6:30 this morning by Officer Spillner on request of Huntington officers who furnished a description of the man. He is charged at Huntington with the theft of several rings, a lady's gold watch and some blacksmith's tools. The information came yesterday and the officers were on the lookout for the man. It was known that he had arrived in town sometime yesterday, but he could not be located. It was afterward learned that Mr. Carr had put in the day sleeping at the Wabash coal docks. This morning Officer Spillner spied him on Calhoun street and took him in. He admitted his identity and Marshall McCarthy, of Huntington, was notified. The Huntington officer will be here sometime today to take his man back.

H. H. Babcock, of Reading Michigan related to the police that his satchel had been stolen at the Lake Shore depot last evening, while he was waiting for a train. The satchel contained nothing but baby clothing and it is believed that it was taken by mistake.

Miss Lillie Miner mourns the loss of a pocket book containing eight or nine dollars and some cards. She has no idea where she and her purse parted company.

A notice from Berne, Ind., informs the local officers that a horse was stolen there on Saturday night and that it is believed the thief is headed this way. A reward of $50 is offered for the capture of the thief irrespective of the horse.

Mrs. G. B. Grant, of 1209 Calhoun street, reports the loss of her pocketbook containing $1.25 and some gas receipts. She does not care much about the money, but would like to get her receipts back.

Day officers were today kept busy ordering farmers off Harrison street to Barr street, where the produce market will hereafter be allowed, and nowhere else. Harrison street business men say that they are now satisfied with the new arrangement and do not believe that their business will be materially affected by the change.

There was a still alarm of fire yesterday from the flats off Van Buren street, where the circus was given last week. A lot of straw and refuse was set on fire and the damage was absolutely nothing. Departments 3 and 7 responded to the call.

PLEDGES MAUMEE PAVEMENT

CONTRACTOR PETER TALKS OF THE IMPROVEMENT.

Says Fire at Mine Plant Was Cause of Delay—General News of the City Hall.

T. J. Peter, representing the Interstate Construction company, is in the city today and gave to The Sentinel the most positive assurance that the Maumee avenue paving contract would be completed this fall, long before the first day of November. Mr. Peter said that the work had been delayed here and elsewhere by reason of a fire at the asphalt works, in Kentucky. The damage occasioned there has been repaired, according to the personal observation of Mayor Berghoff, who visited the mines last Friday, and Mr. Peter says that he had telegraphic information that the work of shipping had been commenced today, the first car having been shipped to Auburn this forenoon. Speaking of the delay in contracts held by his company and of the delay in commencing the Fort Wayne work Mr. Peter said:

"We were handicapped by the fire and knew it. What good would it have done us to have come out publicly and said that the reason we were late was on account of the fire? Nobody would have believed us and the cry would have been that we were hunting for an excuse. The fact that the asphalt plant at Big Cliffs was destroyed was not published in the Associated Press and it would have looked as though we were looking for some loop-hole to crawl out of. Now that the mayor and a member of the board of works have been to the mines and know the situation and have stated their impressions we are in a position to talk. I expect to commence work on the contract on Maumee avenue by September first, and six weeks will see the job finished. Fort Wayne knows my system and knows that when I put men on a job, the job is going through and going through on time and in a hurry. At Auburn we have moved 40,000 yards of earth and have placed over 18,000 yards of concrete in less time than all the contractors on Fort Wayne jobs have done all summer. You can confidently and honestly assure the readers of The Sentinel that the Maumee avenue pavement will be completed this fall before November first and that it will be the prize pavement of the city."

Mr. Peter stated that the difficulty at Wabash had been settled and that a telegram informed him that 35 men had started to work this morning. Mr. Read, of the company, was in the city for a short time this forenoon and went to Auburn at noon to pay off the men employed on the job there.

ABOUT THE COURT HOUSE.

County Clerk Belot at noon today forwarded to the authorities at Richmond the papers and finding of the commission of lunacy which declared Carl P. Swain insane. The commission consisted of Justice France and Doctors Mikesell and English. The verdict was rendered late on Saturday night.

Sarah E. Ransbottom, recently adjudged insane, will be taken to Richmond tomorrow morning by a deputy sheriff, accompanied by relatives of the family.

William Morton, of the auditor's office, has returned from a two weeks outing, during which he took in everything from Petoskey to Chicago.

A. C. Neirman, the elevator man at the court house, who is also a deputy sheriff, arrested a couple of young men who were on the court house tower amusing themselves by seeing how far they could spit. They succeeded in landing a load or two of tobacco juice on the dresses of ladies on a corridor below them. Sheriff Stout reprimanded the fellows and allowed them to go after making apologies to the victims of their filthiness.

today arranging for the court house dedication, particulars of which will be found in another column.

THE MARRIAGE RECORD

The marriage license record today showed up about the only news there was obtainable about the county building. August Haensch and Mary Haensch were licensed to re-enter the married state after a short period of contemplation. June 26 they were man and wife, but on the following day they were two of a different kind, having been divorced on the complaint of the woman. The other license out of the usual order was issued to Nick Boyer and Mary Kesler. The bride is the divorced wife of Dr. A. J. Kesler and this is her third venture on the matrimonial sea. Mr. and Mrs. Kesler were divorced in May of last year and with the suit went $1,500 alimony to Mrs. Kesler. The other two licenses were unsensational and were to Joseph Pembleton and Tillie Etgen and to Clarence Donaldson and Myrtle A. Morrow.

COME HOME

If you are out of the city on your vacation---come home and come down to our store Tuesday morning. You who are at home, come. Why? Our fall and winter stock is here on the second floor, marked and ready to come down. We have but a small stock of spring and summer goods left, and we have decided to make them walking advertisements for our store. We could close out the remainder of our stock to some merchants for a third more than we are going to sell them to our customers, but this is not merely a sale to get rid of the goods and make room for our fall and winter stock. Our stock is small. We marked our goods last spring so you would buy them, and we are not in need of room, nor have we got to have the money. But we will have it known and impressed on the people of Fort Wayne that "PATTERSON" can and does sell high-grade goods for much less than any other store in Northern Indiana.

BASE BALL

Logansport came up here yesterday with a base ball team and between 300 and 400 loud-talking enthusiasts, who noised it about before the game that at least three or four street sweepers would be necessary to decently gather up the scattered remains of the Shamrock ball club after the artists from the Bridge city got through devastating things. A great deal of balky confidence, which might as well have been left unhitched, was tied up to the genial Mr. Ream, who once pitched for the Fort Wayne club when the Inter-State was working, and who was to do the heavy work in the general plan of annihilation. Somehow everything seemed to go wrong with Logansport after the game commenced, and while the rooters kept at their task faithfully and diligently, there wasn't anything doing in the way of runs on the visitor's end of the scoreboard. The Shamrocks won the game in the first inning and were never in danger after that. Ream pitched cleverly enough, but with 9 errors piled up behind him he was left hopelessly in the hole. The Shamrocks succeeded in getting 6 into their column, but good hitting and commendable head work by Robbins won the game easily. The score:

IN THE LEAGUES.

Chicago has been dallying with bad luck for several days in both leagues. On Saturday the Americans lost as did the Nationals and yesterday the Nationals lost two games. The result is that in the Americans the champions are now in fourth place, although an enterprising cotemporary still has them at the head of the list. Chicago would be happy if 'twere only true. The prize game of the season was played at St. Louis, where St. Louis and Brooklyn played eighteen innings to a tie with 7 each. At the end of the second inning the game stood 4 to 5 in favor of Brooklyn and after that there were 28 half innings in which no runs were made. Cincinnati gave Pittsburg another drubbing and 15,000 people saw the trick done. Since Brush has been out of base ball in Cincinnati the crowds have been tremendous, while before, with Brush in, the attendance has been beggarly. Chicago turned out 12,000 people to see New York trim the home team, but it took 14 innings to do it the first time. In the American association Louisville took a double header and strangest of all, Toledo won both games from Kansas City, and is now so safely placed in the ranking that it is doubtful whether her percentage will fall below .300 during the balance of the season; she has a cinch on last place, however. Yesterday's attendance in three cities of the National league was 38,300; in the American no games were played and in the American association three cities turned out 13,601. REMARKABLE CURE OF DYSENTERY.

Mr. J. B. Davis, who resides three miles north of this place has a son fourteen or fifteen years of age who was taken with dysentery last December, and to our knowledge was treated for four or five months by physicians of splendid reputation. The boy grew worse all the time and got so he could scarcely walk across the room. About thirty days ago we sold Mr. Davis a 25-cent bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy on a guarantee. In about a week he came back for a second bottle and stated that his son was a great deal better than he had been since December. The second bottle has cured him of the trouble entirely.—G. E. THE MARKETS.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 18.—Grain showed good strength at the opening today on wet weather both in this country and England and on the very poor grading. September wheat started a shade to ⅛@¼c up at 70c to 70⅛c and soon sold to 70⅜@70½c. Receipts of winter wheat were liberal, especially in the southwest, but out of 355 cars received here, only 3 graded contract. There were gains in the spring wheat region and some doubt was expressed over coming weather. This started fear over grading in spring harvests and bulls renewed the argument that the present condition in September was a fair chance for squeezing the shorts. World's shipments were 7,304,000 bushels against 11,344,000 bushels last year. Breadstuffs on passage increased 1,648,000 bushels. Minneapolis and Duluth reported 323 cars received, making a total for the three northwestern points of 678 cars against 598 last week and 645 a year ago.

Wheat was bought fairly until September sold at 70½c. Then, regardless of heavy decreases in the visible supply and 1,029,000 bushels cleared at the seaboard, September broke badly and sold at 69c. Heavy movement, 465 cars expected here tomorrow, was the principal cause. September closed weak, ⅞c lower, at 69@69⅛c.

Wet weather, especially in Iowa, and fairly firm cables put strength into corn. Receipts were very small at 43 cars, 9 of contract grade. Congestion in September caused nervousness and shorts covered. September started unchanged to ⅛c up at 51⅛c to 51¼c and sold to 52c.

Corn held to its conscious strength until September sold at 52¼c. Then the supporters sold freely and on the narrowness of the market September fell back to 51⅛c, closing barely firm, ⅜c up, at 51½c.

The wet weather was too wet for good grading in oats and more rain was predicted. Out of 261 cars received today only 23 were contract. Shorts bought freely and September which started ¼c to ½c up at 32½c to 32⅜c sold to 32⅝@32¾c.

Provisions started easy on outside liquidation in far deliveries. Good support, however, and a steady hog market brought good advances. September pork started 5c down at $15.87½ and sold to $16.00; September lard unchanged at $10.20 and advanced to $10.32½, and September ribs unchanged at $9.62½ and sold to $9.75.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, Aug. 18.—The tone of the opening stock market was decidedly irregular. Toledo, St. Louis and Western was lifted 2 points and the preferred over a point and a few of the southwesterns showed a hardening tendency. Otherwise prices were shaded. The grangers and Pacifics opened lower and there were sharp fractional declines in Norfolk and Western and Sugar.

Stocks were feverish but the usual leaders more dealings. Toledo, St. Louis and Western advanced to 32½ and then reacted 2 points, but the preferred was firm at the best. American Grass Twine rose 2 points and lost half of it, while Anaconda jumped 3. A large demand set in later for Louisville and it improved 2¼ to 154¼, with some slight effect elsewhere. Illinois Central gained 1¼ and Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis declined as much.

Prices declined quite generally well below Saturday's close when the traders sold Brooklyn Transit and took profits in Louisville and Illinois Central. These stocks fell back a point or more and Missouri Pacific, St. Paul, Union Pacific, New York Central, Pennsylvania and Louisville large fractions. Texas and Pacific lost the best part of a point rise and American Express broke 4¾. American Telephone and Telegraph sold a point higher and Western Union and Twin City Rapid Transit as much lower. Louisville was rushed up again to the highest before noon, causing the general list to steady in spots.

Bonds were irregular.

The active issues were heavy in sympathy with stocks. The Central of Georgia income issues declined from 1 to 3½, the first incomes scoring the maximum loss, on the reduction in the annual interest from a 5 to a 3 per cent basis.

TWO PROMOTIONS

JOHN DALMAN AND G. L. WALL FORTUNATE ONES.

FORMER GOES TO C., A. AND C.

LATTER TO THE ERIE AND ASHTABULA ROAD.

NEW TRACKS AT THE SHOPS

WILL MAKE EASY WORK OF A HERETOFORE HARD TASK.

D. F. Crawford, superintendent of motive power of the Pennsylvania, makes the announcement of the promotion of two gentlemen well and favorably known in this city. John Dalman, who was general foreman at New Castle of the Erie and Ashtabula division, has been transferred to the Cleveland, Akron and Columbus, with the title of master mechanic, with headquarters at Mt. Vernon, Ohio. George L. Wall has been appointed general foreman of the Erie and Ashtabula, succeeding Mr. Dalman. The duties of this office are practically that of a master mechanic and during Mr. Dalman's administration he attended all the meetings and was considered as one of the master mechanics. The change becomes effective at once and Mr. Wall left last night for New Castle and this morning assumed the duties of his office. His family will follow in a few days. John Dalman is a Fort Wayne boy, being the son of John Dalman, sr., ex-county treasurer. He has been with the Pennsylvania company about three years, serving a portion of that time in the capacity of assistant superintendent of motive power under Mr. Crawford. The interval between graduation from a polytechnical college and his service with the Pennsylvania Mr. Dalman spent in the motive power department of the Lehigh Valley road. Mr. Wall came here about five years ago, shortly after leaving college, and has been employed in various capacities in the shops and on the road ever since. On account of his knowledge of mechanics and general information he is a very useful man. He served as foreman of one of the departments of the shops for several weeks this summer and during his connection with the works he has filled other responsible positions. Both men are popular and their advancement is welcomed by all the railway and shopmen who know them.

A GREAT EXCURSION DAY.

All the Fort Wayne roads engaged in the Sunday excursion business established a new record in the way of travelers yesterday. The aggregate travel in and out of the city on the special Sunday rate tickets was 4,666, distributed as follows: To Dayton and Cincinnati, on the Findlay, 329; to Bellevue, on special Nickel Plate train, 115; east on regular and west on regular trains on same road, 282; to Chicago on Pittsburg, 205; to Toledo on Lake Shore, 75; to Toledo on the Wabash, 248; to Detroit, on the Wabash, 143; to Rome City, on the Grand Rapids, 650; from Lafayette on special Wabash train, 586; from Peru and Huntington on special Wabash train, second section, 237; from Huntington alone on regular Wabash trains, exclusive of foregoing, 210; from Jackson, on the Lake Shore, 741; from Indianapolis, on the Lake Erie, 306; from Connersville on the Lake Erie, 449, and from points on the Findlay, Fort Wayne and Western, 90. The Wabash made a special effort to get business out of Huntington and as a result the number from that city, including both those on the regular and the special trains was 383. The Lake Shore's Toledo excursion was something new to Fort Wayne people, but the company is highly pleased with the result. The train encored Toledo with 601 passengers. Passenger Agent Winans is also inclined to be jubilant over the result of the C. H. & D. excursion, the total travel into Dayton and Cincinnati on that train being 819. There were plenty of coaches and seats for all, however, and the big crowd was well handled and all were good natured and seemed to enjoy the trip.

WILL HAVE A FIELD DAY.

This evening the Relief Union of the Fort Wayne Electric company will hold a meeting to decide some questions, chiefly the date, concerning the association's annual field day sports. The sentiment for a date in early September seems to be general, but the announcement of the day cannot be made until after the meeting tonight.

FELL AT HIS DESK.

Earl Reeves, a clerk in the Wabash freight office, is in St. Joseph hospital, where he was taken suffering from an attack of heart disease at 10 o'clock last Saturday. The attack came while the young man was at work at his desk and without a moment's notice he sank to the floor, perfectly helpless. He is improving and will soon be able to resume work. Mrs. Reeves, the mother of the sick man, came up from her home in Muncie yesterday and spent several hours at the bedside of her son.

THREE MEN HURT.

James Leach, a boilermaker employed at the Pittsburg shops, is laid up with a very painful foot. The member was injured by a rusty nail, which penetrated it a considerable distance.

Clyde U. Hench, apprentice at the Wabash shops, went to the company's Springfield hospital this morning to receive treatment from the occulist. Clyde had an eye injured by a piece of metal getting into it last Saturday.

PUTTING IN NEW TRACKS.

Stakes were driven this morning for the three tracks that are to be put in at the east car shops to facilitate the handling of steel underframes for cars. Each track will be about 1,000 feet long and so arranged that the big traveling crane can pass down among the tiers of frames and pick up any one of the pieces at will. These under-frames weigh 14,000 pounds each and are hard to handle by present methods.

CAIRNS WON THE FOOT RACE.

The venerable James Cairns, one of the most popular members of the Caledonian society, who won the foot race for old men at Huntington last Saturday, will be seventy-six years old March 7 next. His contestants, Capt. Allan Dougall and James Gillie, who are quite active for men over fifty years, are "out of their class" in a foot race with Uncle Jimmy. Mr. Cairns is a machinist and for many years he was employed in the Pittsburg shops. A year ago last January, when the company put its pension system in operation, Mr. Cairns was retired, much to his disgust. In conversation with a former shopmate this morning he said: "Had I known what was up when the company took a census of its employes I believe I would have 'fibbed' as regards my age. I consider myself able to do a good day's work yet." Father Time has been kind to Mr. Cairns, he bearing the appearance of a man less than sixty. Mr. Cairns last week received a letter from his brother in Scotland, whom he had not seen nor heard from in fifty years. They parted when their mother died, Mr. Cairns coming to America and his brother going into England, and they were never able to learn the wherabouts of each other afterwards. Alexander Henderson, who visited Scotland last spring, saw the brother and told him of James Cairns, and from this information the brothers were placed in communication with each other.

The northwestern farmers and elevator men are promised a reduction in grain rates and President James J. Hill, of the Northwestern, states that the new rate will go into effect this week.

The Pennsylvania wreck crew was called to Lima yesterday to clear up a freight wreck. The air brakes closed down with such force that two cars in the train had their ends stove in by bumping together violently.

Supt. J. W. Hunter, of the Grand Rapids and Indiana road, returned from Burt Lake Saturday night. He spent ten days in that resort, stopping at the Colonial, and says the sojourn was replete with rest and enjoyment.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hepp have left the city for a visit with friends in Chicago, Logansport and elsewhere. Mr. Hepp is foreman of the Wabash blacksmith shop and during his absence that duty is being performed by David Murray.

The Gaskill-Mundy Carnival show, which is giving exhibitions at Elkhart this week, passed through the city, over the Pennsylvania and the Lake Shore roads, yesterday. There were thirteen cars in the special train which carried the showmen and their luggage.

R. C. Chase, collector for A. G. Porter lodge No. 141, B. of L. F., will leave tomorrow on a vacation trip which will consume about two weeks. He will be accompanied on the journey by his family. A portion of the time will be spent at Rome City.

Frank Wilke, of Elwood, Ind., is visiting relatives in the city and adjacent country. He is now employed in tin plate mills. Several years ago he worked in the Pittsburg blacksmith shop, being a helper to the late John Slater. Mr. Wilke called at the smith shop this morning to see his old friends.

At a meeting of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen yesterday C. F. House, a Pittsburg brakeman, was taken into the order. A message was also read announcing the death of one of the members of the lodge, W. S. Eckert, which occurred in Duluth, Minn. When the deceased resided in this city he was employed on the Pittsburg road.

Switchmen Perb Davis and George Sunley resumed work at the Pittsburg yards this morning. Mr. Davis had been in Crestline on business and Mr. Sunley was in Sioux City, Iowa, attending the christening exercises of his little nephew, the son of a favorite sister. The little fellow was named after his uncle.

There is apparently no diminution in the number of contracts that are being placed for erecting houses in the city and particularly in the residence portion of the city. Saturday Contractor Frank Coblantz began assembling the material for a house in the Bash addition, and this morning the material for a house to be erected by Contractor Joseph Bundy was delivered at the corner of Creighton avenue and Force streets.

Indianapolis Journal: "The activity in the stock of the Toledo, St. Louis and Western is attracting attention, but the cause has not been announced. The significant feature about the advance is the fact that it is the natural link for connecting the St. Louis and San Francisco and the Chicago and Eastern Illinois, and combined would practically duplicate the most important part of the Wabash system."

Capt. H. Stoll yesterday received a bulletin of the following changes in the Pennsylvania police department: Lieutenant E. S. Powell has been transferred from the Chicago Terminal to the Panhandle at St. Louis; John Lund has been appointed Powell's successor, and J. R. Brennen has been appointed lieutenant, vice John Rossiter, promoted. The bulletin does not mention the station to which Rossiter is assigned.

Alexander Hurford, of Canton, Ohio, who died last week, aged 85 years, was one of the promoters of the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago road and for years was one of the officers.

Councilman William Hosey, of the Pittsburg machine shop, is taking a vacation.

Supt. E. A. Barnes, of the Electric works, returned from a business trip to Chicago Saturday night.

Frank O'Ryan is spending a couple days at Rome City. He is assistant foreman of the testing room at the Electric works.

Machinist Jacob Erlenbaugh, of the Wabash shops, and his family, are entertaining John Burchfield and family, of Huntington.

J. F. Tierney, night yardmaster of the Erie at Huntington, and his wife, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Brooks over Sunday.

John E. Smith, a hammersmith at the Wabash shops, reported for work this morning, after an absence of two weeks. He had a leg injured.

A car load to Beloit, Wis., and a car load to Nicholsonville, Ky., were chief among the machinery shipments from the Electric works today.

Mrs. C. D. Sheumann, wife of a painter in the Wabash shops, has returned from Chicago, where she spent three weeks with relatives and friends.

Charles DeRome, a machinist, who was injured six weeks ago by a piece of pipe falling down the elevator and striking him, was able to report for duty this morning.

J. E. Bickell, assistant medical examiner of the Pennsylvania Voluntary Relief association, is taking his annual vacation, a portion of which will be spent at Rome City.

Next Saturday William Miller and Ed Kickley, machinists at the Wabash shops, will leave on a ten days' jaunt, which will include a visit to Kansas City and St. Louis.

Passenger Engineer Ross Germain, of the Nickel Plate, is taking his summer vacation and Engineer Ed Wolf will preside at the throttle on trains 2 and 3 on the Fourth division in the meantime.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Pitzenberger returned to their home in Indianapolis this morning after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Kerlin. Mr. Pitzenberger is a conductor on the Peoria division of the Big Four road.

Edward F. Remmert, clerk and stenographer for Capt. H. Stoll, who is serving as a stenographer in the main office of the company at Pittsburg during the vacation term, was here yesterday to spend a few hours with his relatives.

Machinist Harry McCollem leaves next Saturday on a trip over the eastern division of the Wabash, stopping at Detroit, Buffalo and other important places on the road, looking after some special duties. He will be absent about a week.

The Wabash road, which runs within a few miles of Joliet, will build a spur into that city. The Illinois Central contemplates a similar spur. Joliet is quite an important manufacturing center and furnishes considerable freight business.

Fireman G. W. Erwin is getting ready to go to Chattanooga, where he will represent A. G. Porter lodge, No. 141, at the annual meeting of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen. He will probably be absent from the city three weeks on that occasion.

Road Foreman C. R. Colmey, of the Pennsylvania, has accepted the applications of G. F. Bueker, H. R. Reeve, A. F. Steven, C. E. Griffith, A. D. Hollaway and C. E. Burgess as firemen and they are learning the road preparatory to entering active service.

Engineer E. C. Irish and Fireman John Miller, of Peru, came up here this morning to get passenger engine 621, which has been receiving general repairs in the Wabash shops. Mr. Irish was formerly employed on the Nickel Plate road and resided in this city.

The movement for a ten hour work day among trainmen is spreading and petitions are daily being presented to the management of the railways asking for such reduction. Last week the train employes of the Philadelphia and Reading sent in a petition.

Between now and Nov. 1 the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific will receive ten new passenger trains of five cars each, when the company expects to open its new service from Chicago to the Pacific, via the Southern Pacific from El Paso. The cost of the trains is $1,500,000.

F. J. Burns, assistant foreman of the Pittsburg roundhouse, and his wife leave tomorrow for Coldwater, Mich., where they will join their little son, who went to that city immediately at the close of the school term. From Coldwater the family will go into northern Michigan to remain a week.

A. C. Davis, the electrical engineer of the Pittsburg, was in Winona over Sunday.

F. B. McDonnell, machinist, was in Chicago yesterday visiting his best girl.

V. Schroyer, A. Gerard and Gus Trambach, of the Pittsburg shops, are sick and off duty. J. H. Neff is taking a leave of absence to look after some private matters.

T. J. Rodabaugh, foreman of the Pittsburg paint shop, who has been sick a few days, is recovering and was able to go to his office this morning for the first time in three or four days.

Miss John McFerran, of Birmingham, Ala., who is visiting in this vicinity, went to Waterloo Saturday to spend a week with her mother. Mr. McFerran is a locomotive engineer.

Boone Ickes, a machinist, took a position in the Wabash shops today and has been assigned to the night gang until there is an opening in the day force. Mr. Ickes comes from Joliet, where he worked in railway shops.

The Pittsburg blacksmith shop is in good shape at present as regards workmen. Al Throckmorton, Harry W. Koonz, A. Ryan, W. O. France and R. W. Shaw, who were off duty on account of sickness, resumed their respective places in that shop this morning.

While Assyrians are good workmen and industrious, they do not seem to have due regard for the rights of their employers and will quit their positions without the slightest notice of such intention. A good many of these people are employed in the foundries in the city, and aside from their liability to quit work at any moment, they are good laborers. Five of them quit at the Bass shops this morning.

TOMORROW MORNING

We will begin a sale that will continue eleven days, if the goods last that long. Many suits will be sold from $1.00 to $6.00 less than actual cost. You say that this is impossible. Don't say too much until you know. Our "ads." do not lie.

MALARIA An Invisible Enemy to Health

Means bad air, and whether it comes from the low lands and marshes of the country, or the filthy sewers and drain pipes of the cities and towns, its effect upon the human system is the same.

These atmospheric poisons are breathed into the lungs and taken up by the blood, and the foundation of some long, debilitating illness is laid. Chills and fever, chronic dyspepsia, torpid and enlarged liver, kidney troubles, jaundice and biliousness are frequently due to that invisible foe, Malaria. Noxious gases and unhealthy matter collect in the system because the liver and kidneys fail to act, and are poured into the blood current until it becomes so polluted and sluggish that the poisons literally break through the skin, and carbuncles, boils, abscesses, ulcers and various eruptions of an indolent character appear, depleting the system, and threatening life itself.

The germs and poisons that so oppress and weaken the body and destroy the life-giving properties of the blood, rendering it thin and watery, must be overcome and carried out of the system before the patient can hope to get rid of Malaria and its effects.

S. S. S. does this and quickly produces an entire change in the blood, reaching every organ and stimulating them to vigorous, healthy action. S. S. S. possesses not only purifying but tonic properties, and the general health improves, and the appetite increases almost from the first dose. There is no Mercury, Potash, Arsenic or other mineral in S. S. S. It is strictly and entirely a vegetable remedy.

Write us about your case, and our physicians will gladly help you by their advice to regain your health. Book on blood and skin diseases sent free.

WAS BADLY STUNG BY BEES

G. W. SWINEHART GOT INTO A LIVELY SKIRMISH.

Drove Into a Nest of Bumblebees and Suffered Severely—Horses Also Badly Stung.

Myriads of bumblebees proved themselves just as busy as the other kind Saturday, when G. W. Swinehart, residing on the Bash farm, southwest of the city, unwittingly drove into a nest of the insects. Before he could escape he was badly stung and it will be some time before he recovers from the effects of his painful experience.

Mr. Swinehart says the bees are when his team of horses disturbed a nest in the field the bees quickly began putting up the liveliest sort of a fight. Dozens of the insects swarmed about Mr. Swinehart's head, neck and hands, and pretty nearly every individual bee sank his harpoon into the unfortunate man before he could escape. Mr. Swinehart's hands, face and neck are badly swollen. A young man named Cory, who went to Swinehart's relief, also suffered severely.

When the bees attacked the horses the animals became frantic in a moment, but refused to be driven forward for the reason that at every movement the bees hit them in a new place. It was finally necessary to nearly cover the horses with hay in order to get them out of the way of the bees. The horses are stung in dozens of places.

Lafayette, Ind., Aug. 18.—As the result of a strike and boycott declared against the Lafayette Street Railway company by the Central Labor union, the cars of the company are hauling few passengers today, while wagons and carriages operated by the friends of the strikers are being liberally patronized.

WILL APPEAR SEPT. 2.

"THE SENTINEL'S" BIG PROSPERITY EDITION.

On Tuesday, Sept. 2nd, The Sentinel will issue from 15,000 to 20,000 copies of the daily edition of sixteen pages each, and it will be made an issue of many special features, giving the city a fitting advertisement. This large edition will be distributed throughout the country as the subscribers may elect. The trades and industries of Fort Wayne must be advanced in the march of progress and The Sentinel will do its share towards accomplishing that end.

There is doubtless more inquiry about Indiana in general and particularly Fort Wayne, at present than at any previous time in its history. People are anxious for information and it seems almost impossible to supply the demand by literature that will be read, not thrown aside. Other cities are making an extra effort for immigration, and especially factories, and we should not be in the rear. Our city is now enjoying an almost unprtcedented degree of prosperity. No commercial or industrial enterprise is languishing. Our population is rapidly increasing and this increase is being as rapidly absorbed in the various pursuits which they here find open to them. At no time in all our past has our future seemed so auspicious as in the live and growing present.

The compilers of the edition are meeting everywhere with encouragement. Already several thousand copies have been ordered, and if the present ratio keeps up The Sentinel will be forced to issue many more thousands than was originally intended.

For the compilers The Sentinel asks that those from whom they seek information give it cheerfully, as it will redound to the benefit of the city and indirectly the giver. Fort Waynetes should help make Fort Wayne's "PROSPERITY EDITION" give evidence of prosperity in every detail.

New York, Aug. 18.—The report of the New York board of health for the first quarter of the present year shows a decrease of deaths from consumption of 282 as compared with the first three months of last year. This bureau is sending Prof. Hoff's literature on the treatment and cure of consumption gratis to all who apply by addressing The American Bureau of The Prof. Hoff Cure for Consumption, Third ave. and 10th St., New York City.

BLAZE OF JEWELS

WAS GORGEOUS IN DIAMONDS

IS A GUEST OF THE KING AT MARLBOROUGH HOUSE.

DEWET, BOTHA AND DELAREY TO GO TO BRUSSELS.

London, Aug. 18.—The shah of Persia, Muzafar-Ed-Din, and his suite, who arrived at Dover yesterday, reached London today and took up their residence at Marlborough house as guests of King Edward. In accordance with the Persian monarch's express wish the train from Dover only traveled twenty miles an hour. He, therefore, had plenty of time to array himself in full state uniform, and when he left the train at Victoria station he was resplendent in a blaze of diamonds. On his tarboosh (cap) a huge diamond stood out like a headlight, his epaulettes were adorned with large emeralds and his breast was covered with jewels of all kinds. The gems worn by the members of the shah's suite were only a little less rich than these of his majesty. The prince of Wales, Lord Lansdowne, the foreign minister; Lord Roberts, the commander-in-chief, and the members of the Persian legation and others met the royal traveler at the station. The prince of Wales and the shah shook hands and the visitor was introduced to the prominent persons present. The prince of Wales subsequently conducted the shah to a royal carriage and they drove off escorted by a detachment of life guards and followed by other carriages. The route to Marlborough house was lined with troops. The weather was miserable, so the sightseers were not numerous.

BOERS GO TO BRUSSELS.

London, Aug. 18.—The Boer generals, Botha, De Wet and Delarey, start for Brussels tonight. After Saturday's experience they are not willing to again face the ordeal of a British crowd, so the generals chartered a special steamer and are keeping the railroad station where they will entrain and their port of sailing a secret.

Captain O'Donnell, who served on De Wet's staff throughout the war, starts immediately for America in order to prepare the way for the visit of the generals. He says that altogether about 500 Americans and 500 Irishmen were with the Boer forces.

THE NAVAL MANEUVERS.

The naval maneuvers in the Solent today were marred by the weather. Torrents of rain and half a gale of wind drove the spectators from the sea front and it was noon instead of 10 o'clock when the royal yacht Victoria and Albert left Cowes and took King Edward through the lines of the fleet. Subsequently an array of battleships and cruisers to the number of nearly eighty formed in two columns and passed on either side of the Victoria and Albert. All the war vessels manned ship as they passed the royal yacht.

Late in the afternoon the Boer generals left their hotel and proceeded to the docks to embark on the steamer Batavier, bound for Rotterdam. In spite of the secrecy of their movements a large crowd awaited the generals and cheered the departing visitors.

LUTHERAN SYNOD TO MEET.

Lapo..., Ind., Aug. 18.—The general synod of Ohio and other states of the German Evangelical church will convene at St. Paul's church, Michigan City, Thursday afternoon, and remain in session until Wednesday, August 27. The members of the committee of the synod of Michigan will reach the city tonight and the next two days will be spent in preparations for the program of the general meeting. The opening address Thursday morning will be delivered by Rev. Dr. Schuette, of Columbus, O., president of the synod. Dr. Mees, president of the Teachers' seminary at Woodville, O., will speak on Friday. About two hundred ministerial and lay delegates will attend the sessions of the synod.

BOY BADLY INJURED.

Walter Kruse, sixteen years of age, residing three miles north of the city, was kicked in the head by a horse Sunday morning and badly injured. The lad went to the stable to care for the horses and half an hour later his sister found him beneath the animal's feet, with a large gash over his right eye and bruises upon the back of his head. Dr. F. B. Ladd dressed his injuries and it is believed he will recover safely. The injured boy is a son of E. W. Kruse.

PRETTY CRAFT IS LAUNCHED.

The handsome new launch just built by the T. J. Kehoe Boat company of this city for E. W. Cook was taken to Rome City Saturday afternoon and yesterday the craft was launched in Sylvan lake. The launch is one of the prettiest on the lake and behaved handsomely on its initial spin. It is named the "Flora," in honor of Mr. Cook's young daughter.

NOW IRREMOVABLE RECTORS

REV. J. F. DELANEY AND REV. F. KOERDT HONORED.

Bishop Alerding Advances Two Fort Wayne Parishes—Came as Pleasing Surprise.

Two more of the Catholic parishes in Fort Wayne have been advanced to the grade of irremovable rectorship—St. Patrick's and St. Peter's. The elevation was determined upon several days ago by Rt. Rev. Bishop Alerding, but the announcement was deferred until yesterday, when at the morning service the gratifying news was given out to the two congregations by the pastors, Rev. J. F. Delaney and Rev. Ferdinand Koerdt.

Previous to this time but one other parish in the city has been an irremovable rectorship—that of St. Mary's and the honor is one that is conferred on a congregation only after a demonstration of strength, loyalty, advancement and devotion. St. Patrick's parish is but eleven years old, but it has from the first demonstrated that it is one of the strongest parishes in the diocese.

The honor which thus comes to Rev. Father Delaney is a signal one, for the popular priest is one of the youngest men ever elevated to this dignity in the Fort Wayne diocese. Father Delaney was born at Thompsonville, Conn., and is yet under forty years of age. He was educated at St. Vincent's seminary in Latrobe, Pa., ordained for the Fort Wayne diocese sixteen years ago, and was for five years assistant pastor at the Cathedral. Eleven years ago, when St. Patrick's parish was formed, Bishop Dwenger placed Rev. Father Delaney at its head, and regardless of numerous offers of other pastorates, the gifted young clergyman has preferred to remain with his first parish.

Rev. Ferdinand Koerdt, of St. Peter's church, who shares with Rev. Father Delaney the honors of the day, is also very popular with his people and has been singularly successful in his religious work. He was born in Westphalia, Germany, in 1853, studied at Paderborn and the Royal academy of Muenster, completing his theological education at St. Mary's seminary in Cincinnati. He was ordained in Fort Wayne in 1876, and was at once appointed to the church at Sheldon. Here he remained until called by Bishop Dwenger to the pastorate at St. Peter's. Under his guidance the handsome church and school buildings have been erected and the congregation is in a most prosperous condition. Father Koerdt's announcement to his congregation Sunday was received with unalloyed pleasure.

FOR COURT HOUSE DEDICATION CEREMONIES.

TENTATIVE FORM ARRANGED

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE TAKES UP WORK TODAY.

CHAS. M'CULLOCH TO RECEIVE BUILDING FOR PEOPLE.

The executive committee, chosen a few days ago by the county commissioners to aid in planning and directing the dedication of the Allen county court house in September, met this morning to begin the work of arranging for the big event. With the exception of a brief adjournment at the noon hour the committee has been continuously in session at the court house during the entire day.

Their task is not a small one, and it involves the consideration of a thousand details that might not occur to the casual citizen, but which are nevertheless matters of vital importance to the symmetry and harmony of so splendid an event as the dedication is to be. Those present today included S. M. Foster, Alexander Johnson, Hon. W. P. Breen, Capt. A. H. Dougall, Fred M. Smith, Chairman Orff, of the board of commissioners, Commissioners Schnitker and Moody, and County Attorney Barrett. An organization was effected by the election of Samuel M. Foster as chairman of the executive committee, and Capt. A. H. Dougall as secretary.

No additional information has reached the commissioners regarding the visit of President Roosevelt, and the committee is proceeding upon the presumption that the executive will reach Fort Wayne at 6:30 o'clock on the evening of Tuesday, September 23. Acting upon the most reliable advices now at hand, the committee has today draughted a tentative program for the dedication, and this will be followed so far as may be possible.

THE PROGRAM OUTLINED.

It is decided that the dedication ceremonies will begin at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, the speakers and distinguished guests to occupy an elaborate speakers' stand which will be erected at the southeast corner of the court house square. The program in outline as now framed is as follows:

Meeting called to order by Charles E. Orff, president of the board of county commissioners.
Invocation.
Formal tender of building to the people on behalf of the county commissioners by County Attorney James M. Barrett.
Formal reception of building on behalf of the people of Allen county by Hon. Charles McCulloch, presiding officer of the day.
Music.
Historical address by Col. R. S. Robertson.
Oration by Hon. W. Bourke Cockran.
Benediction.

EVENING PROGRAM.

Address by Governor W. T. Durbin.
Address by President Roosevelt.
Music.
Public reception to President Roosevelt, Governor Durbin and distinguished guests.

NAMING COMMITTEES.

This afternoon the executive committee is making the appointment of the various sub-committees which will be in charge of various departments of the dedication ceremony. These include a committee on invitation, a committee to receive the president, another to receive the governor of the state and a third for the judiciary of the state, besides several other committees.

Engravers are now at work upon the invitations, which will be out within the next few days, and these are to be sent to a long list of distinguished citizens of Indiana, including every member of the supreme and appellate court benches, and every circuit and superior judge in the state.

The railroads have granted a rate of one and one-third fare for the round trip for this occasion and it is expected to bring to Fort Wayne one of the largest audiences ever seen in the city.

THE RECEPTION.

The evening addresses by President Roosevelt and Governor Durbin are to be delivered from the stand at the southeast corner of the building. While the speaking is in progress the court house will be cleared of spectators and kept free until the close of the president's address. At the conclusion of the address the president will be escorted to the rotunda of the building, where, upon a dias at the grand staircase, the president and Governor Durbin, with other distinguished visitors, will receive the public. During this ceremony, no visitors will be permitted on the upper floors of the building. At the close of the reception, however, the entire building will be thrown open, brilliantly illuminated, for the inspection of the public.

HUSBAND DIED SUDDENLY.

Mrs. Loise Elixman, of Westend, N. J., who has been in the city for some days on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. August Wulf, of Parnell avenue, received the distressing news that her husband had died suddenly at a hotel at Westend. No additional particulars were given and friends hastened eastward at once to take charge of the funeral arrangements.

HALF-HOUR SERVICE IN SIGHT

SOUTHWESTERN SMASHED ALL RECORDS YESTERDAY.

Interurban Hauled 5,562 Passengers —Sunday Service Will Probably be Increased.

All previous passenger records of the Fort Wayne and Southwestern Traction company were smashed yesterday when the interurban line did by far the largest passenger business of any day in its history.

A total of 5,562 passengers were carried over its lines between Fort Wayne and Wabash, and this is nearly two thousand in excess of the business of any previous day. It is a remarkable showing, and the more gratifying because there were no accidents and no delays aside from those unavoidably occasioned in handling so great a crowd of people. All day long the cars were heavily loaded.

The result of the day's business is a determination upon the part of the company to increase the carrying capacity of the line in order to better handle the Sunday crowds. Manager Nelson said this morning that he would probably institute a thirty-minute service each Sunday hereafter during the summer season, instead of the hourly service which has been in vogue. The company intends to take proper care of all business that comes its way, and yesterday's crowds practically went to the limit of the hourly service.

LOOKING TO WARREN.

R. D. Smith, right-of-way man for the Southwestern company, was in the city today. Mr. Smith has been securing the right-of-way between Huntington and Warren for the new line projected to Warren, and says the work has progressed nicely. Within a short time Mr. Nelson, acting for the Fort Wayne and Southwestern Traction company, will apply for a franchise through the town of Warren.

LOCAL LINES.

Mrs. W. R. Suttenfield has returned from a visit to her husband at Bryan, Ohio.

A called meeting of Home lodge, F. & A. M., will be held on Tuesday evening.

Miss Anna Ammon, of Philadelphia, is the guest of her uncle, Dr. G. B. M. Bower.

Miss Anna Shaw returned this morning from a week's visit with friends in Chicago.

The Gaudeamus club will meet this evening with Miss Jennie Bayless, on Superior street.

Dr. L. P. Drayer and family returned at noon today from a sojourn in northern Michigan.

Ben Shaw, of the Foster Furniture company, has returned from a two weeks' outing at Lake Wawasee.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hall, of Hendricks street, leave tomorrow for Mt. Clemens, Mich., to remain for an indefinite period.

Miss Jessie V. Drake sang yesterday morning at Berry street M. E. church. Miss Drake has made phenomenal progress since she last appeared before a Fort Wayne audience. Her rendition last evening of Dudley Buck's "I Will Lay Me Down in Peace to Rest," was remarkably well done.

Miss Helen Rohrback returned to work this morning at the J. L. Sievert jewelry store, after a two weeks' vacation spent with friends in Huntington and other points.

Carl Sunderland has taken a position at Pellens & Polster's drug store, succeeding Frank Walters, who resigned to attend school.

The Strollers will give a dance at the Mulqueen academy Wednesday evening. The Annex orchestra will play.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Stone, of Albion, were in the city yesterday.

WILL GO ABROAD

CHARLES M. SCHWAB TO SEEK HEALTH IN RETIREMENT.

TRUST MAGNATE COLLAPSES

HAS DIVORCED HIMSELF FROM ALL BUSINESS.

REFUSES TO SEE VISITORS

BUSINESS ASSOCIATES NOT ALLOWED TO APPROACH.

Pittsburg, Pa., Aug. 18.—A Loretto, Pa., special to the Pittsburg Dispatch says:

President Charles M. Schwab, of the United States Steel corporation, has accepted the advice of physicians and decided to retire indefinitely from an active business life. He will leave America to seek some quiet nook in a foreign clime where not an echo of the strenuous life he has led can reach him. This information is authentic.

Dr. Golden never leaves the Schwab home and the exact nature of his patient's illness cannot be learned through him.

WILL SEE NO ONE.

The strange part of Mr. Schwab's illness is that he is always within view of those who call at his house, yet he will not allow any person to approach him. Heretofore the visitor to the Schwab home was greeted with a hearty welcome and a vigorous handshake. Now the visitor is met at the entrance and told that Mr. Schwab cannot be seen. Intimates of the family receive the same message and none has been able to converse with President Schwab since he came back to his home.

The correspondent then says:

"The people of this town, who still call him 'Charlie,' because of their early and intimate acquaintance with him, are discussing his prospective departure. They know he is a sick man and are relieved that he will spend possibly a year in an effort to regain his health.

"The presence of sisters belonging to the Order of Mercy in his home day and night since Thursday was another indication of illness. The nuns were not visitors, but it is generally known that they are nursing the man who has so many times befriended them and their institutions.

"The knowledge of the people of Loretto is that Mr. Schwab is going away somewhere. His destination will be kept a secret and he will do nothing but seek health until his nerves have been restored to their normal condition and his mind fully relieved of the great strain resulting from so many business cares.

BUSINESS IS BANISHED.

"It was after learning that his health was very bad and that he intended to devote a year's time to recuperating that I passed into the grounds leading to the palatial home on the mountain top.

"Mrs. Schwab said that her husband would not see any person and had not been receiving visitors for several days.

"Mr. Schwab sat on a couch within hearing of our voices. A paper was before his eyes. He exhibited no interest and made no attempt to move.

"Business associates, it is said, have met with a similar reception during the past two days. Mr. Schwab has been directed by his doctors to rid his mind of all business cares and he is obeying the orders religiously.

"Inquiry among the people of the town who have conversed with the Schwabs fully corroborated the stories that he intends to retire from active business life. His friends, however, deny that if he leaves the United States Steel corporation it will be at the dictation of any person other than himself."

FRICKE MAY SUCCEED SCHWAB.

New York, Aug. 18.—The retirement of Charles M. Schwab from the presidency of the United States Steel corporation is now commonly accepted as determined upon, notwithstanding official denials and present reluctance in official circles to confirm the report. President Schwab's impaired health is the reason for this. Well-informed persons say that his retirement will be followed by extensive changes in the membership of the organization. The successor to the presidency is a matter of surmise only and if it has been decided no information can be had on the subject. But ther are many positions of importance in the United States Steel corporation now held by persons who are there on account of personal ties with Mr. Schwab and who remained with the corporation from a devotion to his interests, growing from former association in the Carnegie company. It has been reported that the presidency would pass to James Gayley, the first vice president of the corporation. Other rumors have pointed to H. C. Frick.

GOES TO DAILY NEWS.

Charles R. Lane, the well known newspaper man, will on September 1 become a member of the staff of the Fort Wayne Daily News. Mr. Lane was at one time editor of the Fort Wayne Gazette and more recently has been holding the position of oil inspector and acting as correspondent for a number of metropolitan newspapers. He is well known and is a newspaper man of marked ability, and his return to the newspaper ranks will be warmly welcomed.

MEETING IN FORT WAYNE NEXT SATURDAY.

State Chairman Goodrich, Nominees and Committeemen Will Come to Talk it Over.

Republican officials, committeemen, state and county nominees will meet in Fort Wayne next Saturday for a conference over the political situation, and incidentally it is expected that the local management will be given a few tips by the state organization.

The meeting is to be held at republican headquarters, recently opened in rooms 14 and 15, Arcade, and Chairman Harris has sent calls requesting the presence of all the county and township nominees and every man on the county central committee. State Chairman J. P. Goodrich, of Winchester, will be on hand, as will also District Chairman Leonard, Nat U. Hill, of Bloomington, the nominee for treasurer of state, and Charles W. Miller, of Goshen, the candidate for attorney general. U. C. Gilhams, the congressional nominee, will participate in the deliberations. The conference is set for 2 o'clock.

TICKET IS COMPLETED.

The republican township committee has made selections to complete the Wayne township ticket as follows:

For Members of Advisory Board—Charles W. Fairfield, Clark Fairbank and Samuel D. Bitler.

CHANCES GOOD FOR ANOTHER

Large Plumbers' Supply House Likely to Locate Here—Steel Works is Assured.

Officials of the Commercial Improvement company state that negotiations for the location of still another factory in Fort Wayne have reached such an advanced stage that it is practically certain that the second factory in the new industrial addition at the southwestern edge of the city will be a big concern that will manufacture plumbers' supplies and specialties of that character.

As the result of several weeks' effort the plans are now so far advanced that it is believed the contract for this factory can be closed this week. One hundred men are to be given employment from the first, and a building 50x22 feet, three stories in height, will be necessary, in addition to engine rooms and other additional buildings.

The sale of lots by which funds are to be secured to locate the new steel casting plant has been very successful and the final contract with the company is to be signed up today. This means that work upon the buildings will begin very soon. It is probable that instead of removing the Montpelier plant here, Mr. Huffmann and his associates will place an entire new factory in Fort Wayne.

Misses Madelene, Henrietta and Celeste Petgen have returned home from a ten days' visit at Warsaw and Silver Lake, where they were the guests of relatives and other friends.

LIGHT FOR POLICE

NEW DEVELOPMENTS IN THE BARTHOLIN MURDERS.

SOLUTION BELIEVED NEAR

EDWARD COUNSELMAN HELD AS ACCESSORY.

AN INTIMATE OF BARTHOLIN

WITNESS FOUND TO WHOM THE MAN HAD TALKED.

Chicago, Aug. 18.—Developments today in the Bartholin-Mitchell murder mystery have led the police to believe they are nearer the solution of the problem that has been puzzling them for over a week than ever before. Edward Counselman, the intimate friend of William J. Bartholin, who was kept in custody for possible knowledge of the crimes, was taken before Justice Quinn today and held for ten days in bonds of $10,000, charged with being accessory after the fact in the murders of Minnie Mitchell and Mrs. Anne Bartholin.

Counselman admitted he had met Bartholin and that Bartholin said he was in trouble over Minnie Mitchell.

A NEW WITNESS.

The most damaging testimony as to Counselman's possible guilty knowledge of the murders of the two women came from a new witness whom the police found today, W. M. Allen, a fellow workman of Counselman. Allen said that Counselman had told him repeatedly that he knew a great deal about the trouble Bartholin was in. When Allen suggested that Counselman tell the police what he knew, the latter said he would do no such thing; that Bartholin was his friend and that he was too shrewd for the police. Allen said that Counselman even expressed the opinion that Bartholin had easily had time to reach the seaboard. Allen said that Counselman expressed the greatest anxiety over the case as it developed in the newspapers and that frequently Counselman would walk from the suburb of Harvey, where the two men worked, as far as Kensington, to secure the papers.

HIS NERVES SHATTERED.

For three days Counselman did not do any work because of nervousness. The police have the testimony of another witness, who is positive he saw Counselman and Bartholin together on August 7, the day the body of Minnie Mitchell was found.

It is the purpose of the police to put Counselman through the sweating ordeal today and they say valuable results are expected. Counselman's wife begged him repeatedly to tell the police all he knew, but so far Counselman has been obdurate. A note from Bartholin to Counselman, asking for money and saying that the writer was in trouble, is held by the police. It was this note which Counselman had tried to secure from his wife by choking her that led to his arrest.

The postponed inquest over the body of Minnie Mitchell will be resumed tomorrow. It is probable that a verdict will be returned with recommendations that the men now in custody be held to the grand jury.

STIFF DOSE FOR ANDREWS

BANK WRECKER SENTENCED TO PENITENTIARY.

Judge Murphy Imposes Penalty of Fifteen Years—Hurried Appeal to Supreme Court.

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 18.—Judge Murphy, in recorder's court, today sentenced Frank C. Andrews, who was found guilty Saturday of misapplying and misappropriating funds of the wrecked City Savings bank, to fifteen years at hard labor in Jackson prison. He had previously refused to grant Andrews bail pending the settlement of the bill of exceptions that his attorneys will file.

An exception to the ruling denying bail was taken by defendant's attorneys and it was announced that they will leave for Lansing this afternoon to apply to the supreme court for a writ of error on this point. Andrews never winced when sentenced. He was taken back to jail immediately.

THOUSANDS HEARD MRS. NATION AT ROBISON PARK.

JOINT SMASHER LECTURES

SAYS THE LORD INSPIRED HER TO BEGIN CRUSADE.

BLAMES BOTH OLD PARTIES

SAYS BREWERS CONTROL THE GOVERNMENT.

Mrs. Carrie Nation has come and gone leaving no wrecks of saloons in her wake. The appearance of the Kansas "joint smasher" in Fort Wayne was an interesting but in no wise strenuous event.

Mrs. Nation delivered two addresses to large audiences at Robison park yesterday afternoon and last night a third address of impromptu sort to a good-sized crowd that blocked South Calhoun street in front of the Commercial hotel, where Mrs. Nation was a guest during her stay in Fort Wayne.

Mrs. Nation arrived in Fort Wayne over the Lake Erie and Western at 11 o'clock Sunday. A large crowd greeted her at the depot and she pushed her way through the mass of humanity to a cab with some difficulty. Some shouting and numerous questions gave vociferousness to the reception, but the shouting she did not mind and the questions she answered with quite good humor. To one inquirer she vouchsafed the confidential information that she had not brought her hatchet. But she added, with a grim smile, "I brought an ax."

BIG CROWD HEARS HER.

Mrs. Nation had her dinner and a nap in her room at the hotel. At 3 o'clock a special car took Mrs. Nation to Robison park. Curious crowds lined the streets as the car sped on and at the park a tremendous crowd was assembled about the terminal.

At the band stand on the promontory Mrs. Nation found a still larger crowd and she had some trouble to get through it to the stand. There was some delay waiting until the theater should discharge its crowd and many in the assemblage displayed impatience, some of them in a very coarse fashion. Mrs. Nation begged those men who were smoking to get on the fringe of the audience or swallow their smoke, tossing out a verbal crumb of comfort, at the close of the recitation of some rather bad verses against smoking, to the effect that she had observed men in this world usually do what they would do in the next.

There was another brief wait and Mrs. Nation then began her address. The crowd meantime had continued to grow and when Mrs. Nation faced her audience for the real business of the occasion it embraced several thousand persons, a majority being women.

JUSTIFIES JOINT-SMASHING.

Mrs. Nation, in speaking of the joint-smashing exploits in Kansas that gave her fame, said that she had a right to conduct her crusade. The laws of Kansas made liquor saloons a nuisance and a nuisance was something anybody who suffered from it had a right to abate. The supreme court of the United States had held that a man had a right to destroy a tannery worth $60,000 because it was a menace to the health of his family. Much greater, then, was the right to destroy the saloon which was a menace to the lives and souls of the men and the boys.

Mrs. Nation discussed the Fort Wayne saloons rather in their relation to the whole abstract question of temperance and prohibition rather than as specific instances of the liquor evil.

"You can't have safety for the men and the boys and have the saloons, too. Have you safety here—have you? I say not. On your main streets you have a hundred and more saloons, criminal factories, every last one of them, that are dragging down the husbands and fathers and sons down in the awful hell of drink."

ALLUDES TO M'KINLEY.

Mrs. Nation then went on to discuss the political aspects of the drink traffic and in the course of her remarks made allusions to the late President McKinley that brought forth some signs of displeasure from many in the audience. Some hisses and cries of "Cut it out," "You are wrong," and the like interrupted the speaker.

"The brewers control this government," stoutly asserted Mrs. Nation, "and they control the republican party and they controlled Mr. McKinley. I am right, I am right. I represent the desolated motherhood of this country and I went with a petition to Mr. McKinley to abolish the canteen in the army, to do away with the traffic that inflicts worse than death on our sons whom we give to the army, but the canteen did not go until congress made it go. I am willing to wager that the men here who say 'Cut it out' are the friends of the brewer."

INSPIRED BY THE LORD.

Mrs. Nation then gave some account of her joint-smashing career in Kansas.

"We have a prohibition law in Kansas, but the republican office-holders did not want to enforce it. I went to every officer from the governor to the constables to have them enforce the law in our county, but they laughed me to scorn. At the time there was a plot on foot to get the legislature to have the question resubmitted to the people in the hope that prohibition would be wiped out of the state constitution. And the laws were allowed to be unheeded and the joints to spring up and pollute the state so that it could be proved prohibition would not work. I said that as a Christian and God-fearing woman I would not stand it. Everybody said, 'You can't, you can't, you can't;' but I said I could do all things with the aid of Jesus Christ. I went to God with my cause and said, 'O, Lord, if the sacrifice of one woman, if the life of one poor, helpless servant is necessary to save the homes of this state I lay this life at Your feet.' God said to me, 'You go and smash them and I will stand by you.'

CLAIMS NO CREDIT.

"The Lord did it. I was only His instrument. Many people say to me: 'How did you come to think of it: what put the idea into your head of going out to smash the joints?' Why, my good friends, it was not my idea, it was the Lord's. I do not deserve any credit for it. The Lord just put it into my head and told me to do it and I went forth with my hatchet and my rocks and smashed 'em."

Mrs. Nation said she had been in seven jails and that an effort was made to have her declared insane so she might be locked up. She had been placed, she said, in a cell in one jail with an insane man on one side of her and three cigarette smokers on the other that she might be driven insane.

CALLS THEM HYPOCRITES.

Mrs. Nation paid her respects to the barkeepers and saloon men in a rather kindly spirit. It was to be expected, she said, that they would be what they are. They did not pretend to be anything else. But the deacons in the churches and the loud-praying members in the amen corner who continued to vote for the whisky parties were hypocrites and worse than barkeepers, saloon men and brewers, for they pretended to be the servants of Jesus Christ and partners of the Lord in the regeneration of the world.

Mrs. Nation said she had often been asked why she cut the pictures of nude women and smashed the undraped statuary of women in saloons. It was insult, she said, to her sex, to display the nakedness of the pictured female form in a saloon. "A saloon is not a fit place for a woman to go into with her clothes on, yet some of the saloonkeepers want to strip a woman and show her nakedness to the whisky drinkers."

ASSAILS OLD PARTIES.

Mrs. Nation was particularly vigorous in denouncing the republican party which she said pretended to be a morality party, but allowed the saloons to control it. She later paid somewhat the same tribute to the democratic party. There were many good men in both parties, she declared, but the parties were dominated by the liquor traffic and neither would ever save the country from the great curse that was bound to ruin the nation in time.

At the close of her afternoon address Mrs. Nation held an informal reception at the band stand, kneeling down and shaking hands through the railing with several hundred persons who crowded forward to meet her. Most of her callers were women.

SLY SHOT AT DAVID.

Before the opening of Mrs. Nation's address at the park Sunday afternoon a little incident evoked from the famous woman a sly shot at her divorced husband, David Nation. G. W. Mann, of 136 Washington boulevard, has in his possession portions of an old scrap book made many years ago by his mother, then a resident of Henry county, Indiana. David Nation, afterwards husband of the famous crusader, was then teacher of the country school attended by Mr. Mann's mother, and in the scrap book is an address written by Nation on the occasion of the closing of school. Below it in his handwriting is the inscription, "David Nation, February 15, 1852, Jefferson School House, District No. 6, Henry County, Ind."

Mr. Mann believed the famous Carrie might be interested in the souvenir and he fought his way through the crowd and gave it to her, with a word of explanation concerning the history of the old document. Mrs. Nation adjusted her glasses, glanced hurriedly over the time-seared pages, and handed it back with the remark:

"Yes, I suppose it is interesting, but it is of more interest to him than to me."

PIONEER FARMER IS DEAD

JAMES CRAIG, AGED 82, SUCCUMBS TO OLD AGE.

Julius Bobay Dies From Cancer—Other Deaths and Funeral Notices Today.

James Craig, a pioneer resident of Allen county and long a prominent farmer in Aboit township, died Sunday morning at his home, 1683 Franklin avenue, at the advanced age of 82 years. Death was due to the infirmities of age.

Mr. Craig had been a resident of Allen county half a century. He was born in Scotland in 1820, emigrated to America at the age of 22 and located in Cleveland. Here he was united in marriage to Miss Janetta Boyle. Eight years later Mr. and Mrs. Craig removed to Allen county, living first near the edge of the city. In 1857 Mr. Craig purchased a farm in Aboit township.

For forty-four years this was the family home, until failing health and advancing age compelled Mr. Craig to retire from active work. Throughout his long life Mr. Craig enjoyed the respect and esteem of all who knew him, and was recognized as a valuable and useful citizen. He was widely known. Surviving are the widow and six children—John Craig, of Hartford City; Mrs. Jeanette McVannel, of Flint, Mich.; James Craig, of Traverse City, Mich.; Thomas E. Craig, of Aboit, and Mrs. Henry Vegalues, and Andrew Craig, of this city.

The funeral services will be held on Wednesday.

BOBAY.

John A. Bobay, a well known Perry township farmer, died Sunday morning at his home, seven miles north of the city, after a protracted illness from cancer of the stomach.

Mr. Bobay was 59 years of age, was born upon the farm where he died and had been a life-long resident of Allen county. He was a descendant of one of the earliest French families, and was widely known and highly respected. Surviving are the widow and eight children—Paul, Edward, August, Julius, Joseph and Alexander Bobay, Mrs. J. Till and Mrs. Charles Pichon. There are also three brothers and a sister—J. B., William and Fred Bobay, and Mrs. August Sarrazin.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock from the residence and at 10 o'clock from St. Vincent's Catholic church at Academie.

LEAMING.

Eugene Leaming, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Leaming, died at 9:30 o'clock this morning at the home of Mr. Leaming's father, on Spy Run avenue, from cholera infantum, at the age of 1 year, 2 months and 26 days. The parents reside on the Smith farm, on the Goshen road, and were on a visit to Mr. [illegible]'s when the little one took sick.

The funeral services will be held from the residence Wednesday at 1 o'clock. The interment will occur at Lindenwood.

RAGAN.

Mrs. Margaret Ragan, wife of Daniel Ragan, died Sunday afternoon at her home, 1040 Swinney avenue, from tuberculosis, at the age of 30 years. The family had resided in Fort Wayne but little more than two years, but had made many friends.

The remains were taken today to Terre Haute for interment.

GREER.

Irvin Greer, 6 years of age, an inmate of the state school for feeble minded, died at the institution Sunday from gastro enteritis.

The remains were shipped to North Vernon, Ind., today, for interment.

O'MEARA.

Harry, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. O'Meara, of 201 West Second street, died Saturday afternoon from summer complaint, at the age of six weeks. The father of the little one is an employe of the Lake Shore railroad.

The remains were taken to Muncie today for interment.

Funeral services will be held from the residence Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Paul Stoeppelwerth, and the interment will occur at Lindenwood. Mrs. Armack was 43 years of age and death was due to throat trouble. Surviving are a husband and two children, Anna and William, of Columbus, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Muhlenbruck, of 911 Spring street, this city. There are also several sisters and a brother, who reside here. They are Mrs. Louise Hickman, Mrs. Sophia Krodep, Mrs. Emma Horn, Mrs. Amelia Snider, Miss Minnie Muhlenbruck and C. F. Muhlenbruck.

BAD FIRE IN MAUMEE.

While Mr. and Mrs. William Decker, of Maumee township, were spending Sunday with friends in Adams county, leaving the children and the hired man in charge of things at home, fire destroyed all the barns and outbuildings on the farm. The fire started about 11 o'clock Sunday morning. In the barns were much hay and about 1,000 bushels of grain, which had just been harvested. Thirteen head of hogs and some farming implements were also burned. The origin of the fire is unknown. The loss will be very heavy as Mr. Decker carried but little insurance.

The marriage of Miss Maude Harrison and Harvey Crane, both of this city, will be solemnized September 2 at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Samuel M. Foster, and invitations for the ceremony are to be sent out during the present week. Both Mr. Crane and Miss Harrison are prominent in the social circles of the city and have innumerable friends.

Mrs. J. F. Johnson, of Emington, Ill., is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. B. Brown, of Lakeside.

The Misses Grace and Jean Benoy, who went to Massachusetts three months ago to visit relatives, arrived home this morning. The trip from Buffalo to Detroit was made on a lake steamer and the young ladies were met in the latter city by their father, Frank Benoy.

CASHED SOME BAD CHECKS.

(Hotel World.)

F. E. Purcell, of Brown & Purcell, proprietors of the Hotel Rich, Fort Wayne, Ind., writes that they have been caught by a man claiming to sell oil stock. After being at the hotel a few days the hotel cashed a check for $35, made against the Cleveland National bank. Two days later they cashed another for the party, who wished to purchase a Panama hat for his niece, whom he reported was red headed, and lived in South Bend. Since his departure the hotel has heard nothing of him, but the checks, like the cat in the topical song, came back, with protest fees attached. He is described as being about 55 or 60 years of age, wore glasses, light clothes, blue eyes and possessed of a voice like a chicken. He is about 5 feet 4 inches tall. The hotel would like to hear both of the man and the red-headed niece, for whose Panama they yielded up thirty good dollars.

IN NORTHERN INDIANA.

Bluffton is swaggering a bit because the new Clover Leaf depot has been completed. It is very pretty and cost $6,000.

Dr. A. W. Smith, a well known veterinary surgeon of Wells county, has purchased the Craig house at Ossian and will become a Boniface.

Logansport Elks will build a handsome new home, for which purpose they have $25,000 on hand, largely the proceeds of the late carnival. A company has been organized.

Dennis Brophy, who was defeated in his effort to get a license to run a saloon in Roanoke, has been conducting his place on the "club house" plan. He has been arrested for selling liquor without a license.

The Elkhart Truth says the Bell Telephone company is preparing to withdraw from the field in that city, with the exception of the long-distance business. The Bell exchange is now said to serve but few more than 200 patrons.

Workmen who are grading for the track of the electric line between Wabash and Logansport are unearthing scores of old mule shoes, which have been buried since the abandonment of the old Wabash and Erie canal many years ago.

Van Buren is likely to have another newspaper. Some time ago the News printed an item warning parents to keep away from town because it was—well, much like the dominion of King Beelzebub. Citizens are indignant, hence the likelihood of a new newspaper.

The "devil" of the Union Mills News, according to an editorial announcement in that paper, "got gay" and inserted a paragraph to the effect that the editor was going away to Michigan to be married. It was not true and the editor had to explain.

Pat O'Conner is receiving a hero's meed of worship in Logansport. Saturday evening he saw a small boy on the Wabash railway bridge and a train bearing down upon the little fellow. O'Conner rushed to the boy's aid and set him out of danger. He had not time to reach a place of safety himself and was forced to jump. He plunged fifty feet to the water, suffering a compound fracture of the hip.

HORSESHOERS' OUTING.

The second annual field meet and picnic of the local Horseshoers' association at Centlivre park Saturday was in all respects a success and the members and their families, together with a large crowd of interested friends, enjoyed the occasion. The first all-round prize in the athletic events was won by J. P. Freiburger, of this city, and the second by A. Van Arsdol, of Roanoke. The event about which interest centered was the race between the great stallion Atlantic King and Heirloom, the Centlivre horse winning both heats. J. P. Freiburger won the shooting match and William Schieferstein was second. The contests resulted as follows:

Hammer throw—Won by Freiburger; distance, 69 feet, 2 inches.

Running broad jump—Won by Freiburger; distance, 14 feet, 10 inches.

The trotting race resulted as follows: Seibold, 1, 1; Geary, 2, 2; Zurbaugh, 3, 3. Time—1:20, 1:19¼.

In the exhibition race Atlantic King won both heats in 1:11¼ and 1:05½.

Running high jump—Won by Freiburger; height, 4 feet.

Standing bread jump—Won by Van Arsdol; distance, 9 feet, 7 inches.

One-mile handicap bicycle race—Gebhart, first; Freiburger, second; Miller, of Huntington, third. Time—3:03.

Potato race—Won by Van Arsdol. 100-yard dash—Won by Freiburger; time, 11⅕ seconds.

Fifty-yard dash for fat men—Won by McGrath; time, 6⅕ seconds.

J. Jamie's horse won the half-mile novelty race. Each man drove the other's horse and the last horse under the wire won the race.

Barner's orchestra furnished the music for the occasion and immediately after the field sports were over the crowd went to the grove, where dancing and a large supper helped to pass away the time.

WELKER & NABLO,

928 Calhoun St., near Washington.

The Evening Sentinel.

BY E. A. K. HACKETT.

MONDAY, AUG. 18, 1902.

French royalists have sent a resolution of homage to the duke of Orleans, appealing to him to give the signal so long awaited. When the duke gives it it will be at long range from some point far beyond the frontier.

At an age considerable past four score and ten Pope Leo finds himself in such a state of health that he fears not to disobey his doctors. The venerable pontiff is a splendid example of the profit there is in simple living. He may yet outlive those spoken of to succeed him.

The elusive Mr. Bartholin who is wanted in Chicago for a couple of heinous murders is bobbing up in widely separated localities at the same time. He promises to become as numerous as that other Chicago celebrity, the ubiquitous Willie Tascott.

DeWet, Botha and Delarey, the gallant Boer warriors, received a red hot reception in London and it evidently pleased them. But wait until they get into the United States, where sympathy will be combined with admiration. They will then understand what can happen when good feeling turns itself loose.

Because yesterday was Sunday doubtless was the reason Mrs. Nation did not make her customary tour of the saloons. However, it would have made no difference. Mrs. Nation could have seen the saloon business running full blast in Fort Wayne, for there is no Sunday in the saloon in this city. Saturday is a day of forty-eight hours' length.

President Truesdale, of the Lackawanna road, one of the most powerful factors of the anthracite coal combine, says there will be no compromise of the present strike and that politics will cut no figure in it. The mistake of 1900 will not be repeated, he declares. By this he would seem to mean that the settlement of the bituminous strike two years ago was allowed to be ended by Senator Hanna for political purposes. But the main question at issue now is whether the rights of the anthracite combine are altogether superior to the rights of the miners, and more important still, superior to the rights of the public. Attorney General Knox has the authority to test the issue. Will he do it?

The news seems to be pretty well authenticated that Charles M. Schwab, president of the United States Steel company, better known as the steel trust, is to retire from business and seek to restore himself to health. The young steel magnate has been on the verge of collapse and his doctors have ordered him to absolutely divorce himself from business and spend a year abroad. A year and a half ago Charles M. Schwab became famous as the man with a million-dollar salary. But that sort of a wage has not served to keep him from breaking down under stress of overwork. In that respect he no better off than the underpaid and overworked clerk or laborer who tries to carry a heavier load than he was built to carry. The "strenuous life" in business is all right in the abstract, but there is a limit somewhere to human capacity. When one man undertakes management of practically the entire steel and iron business in a great industrial country like this he is pretty sure sooner or later to locate that limit. It would appear that Mr. Schwab has found it.

FAMILIAR FACE AT THE BAR

IN THIS CASE POLICE COURT BAR IS MEANT.

Other Kind Visited Previously—Mike Koehler Goes Over—The News of the Police.

Judge Dreibelbiss had just an even odd of three to dispose of at police court this morning. The first to answer the call was Michael Koehler, who was slated for drunkenness. It has been a long time since the voluble Mike allowed the policemen to beat him to cover, but he was in for it this morning. He pleaded guilty and not having the necessary wherewithal he went over temporarily. It is a safe proposition, however, that Mike will be out before night. He has the happy faculty of always being able to produce a friend who has the necessary eleven.

The Friday family, of the Sixth ward, was in evidence again this morning. This time it was Henry who strenuously denied having been drunk. The evidence was too strong for him, however, and he went over for 11 days.

John Haskell was the next name called. Mr. Haskell protested at the outrage and said that he had not been drinking. The judge was inclined to give him the limit, but upon the intercession of friends, who said that he was making preparations to leave town the sentence was fixed at 11 days, so as to give him an opportunity to get straightened up and make his escape as a sober man at the expiration of his term. It is not quite certain that he will not be released sooner if his arrangements for emigration can be completed in the meantime.

POLICE NOTES.

William Carr, of Huntington, was arrested at 6:30 this morning by Officer Spillner on request of Huntington officers who furnished a description of the man. He is charged at Huntington with the theft of several rings, a lady's gold watch and some blacksmith's tools. The information came yesterday and the officers were on the lookout for the man. It was known that he had arrived in town sometime yesterday, but he could not be located. It was afterward learned that Mr. Carr had put in the day sleeping at the Wabash coal docks. This morning Officer Spillner spied him on Calhoun street and took him in. He admitted his identity and Marshall McCarthy, of Huntington, was notified. The Huntington officer will be here sometime today to take his man back.

H. H. Babcock, of Reading Michigan related to the police that his satchel had been stolen at the Lake Shore depot last evening, while he was waiting for a train. The satchel contained nothing but baby clothing and it is believed that it was taken by mistake.

Miss Lillie Miner mourns the loss of a pocket book containing eight or nine dollars and some cards. She has no idea where she and her purse parted company.

A notice from Berne, Ind., informs the local officers that a horse was stolen there on Saturday night and that it is believed the thief is headed this way. A reward of $50 is offered for the capture of the thief irrespective of the horse.

Mrs. G. B. Grant, of 1203 Calhoun street, reports the loss of her pocketbook containing $1.25 and some gas receipts. She does not care much about the money, but would like to get her receipts back.

Day officers were today kept busy ordering farmers off Harrison street to Barr street, where the produce market will hereafter be allowed, and nowhere else. Harrison street business men say that they are now satisfied with the new arrangement and do not believe that their business will be materially affected by the change.

There was a still alarm of fire yesterday from the flats off Van Buren street, where the circus was given last week. A lot of straw and refuse was set on fire and the damage was absolutely nothing. Departments 3 and 7 responded to the call.

PLEDGES MAUMEE PAVEMENT

CONTRACTOR PETER TALKS OF THE IMPROVEMENT.

Says Fire at Mine Plant Was Cause of Delay—General News of the City Hall.

T. J. Peter, representing the Interstate Construction company, is in the city today and gave to The Sentinel the most positive assurance that the Maumee avenue paving contract would be completed this fall, long before the first day of November. Mr. Peter said that the work had been delayed here and elsewhere by reason of a fire at the asphalt works, in Kentucky. The damage occasioned there has been repaired, according to the personal observation of Mayor Berghoff, who visited the mines last Friday, and Mr. Peter says that he had telegraphic information that the work of shipping had been commenced today, the first car having been shipped to Auburn this forenoon. Speaking of the delay in contracts held by his company and of the delay in commencing the Fort Wayne work Mr. Peter said:

"We were handicapped by the fire and knew it. What good would it have done us to have come out publicly and said that the reason we were late was on account of the fire? Nobody would have believed us and the cry would have been that we were hunting for an excuse. The fact that the asphalt plant at Big Cliffs was destroyed was not published in the Associated Press and it would have looked as though we were looking for some loop-hole to crawl out of. Now that the mayor and a member of the board of works have been to the mines and know the situation and have stated their impressions we are in a position to talk. I expect to commence work on the contract on Maumee avenue by September first, and six weeks will see the job finished. Fort Wayne knows my system and knows that when I put men on a job, the job is going through and going through on time and in a hurry. At Auburn we have moved 40,000 yards of earth and have placed over 18,000 yards of concrete in less time than all the contractors on Fort Wayne jobs have done all summer. You can confidently and honestly assure the readers of The Sentinel that the Maumee avenue pavement will be completed this fall before November first and that it will be the prize pavement of the city."

Mr. Peter stated that the difficulty at Wabash had been settled and that a telegram informed him that 35 men had started to work this morning. Mr. Read, of the company, was in the city for a short time this forenoon and went to Auburn at noon to pay off the men employed on the job there.

ABOUT THE COURT HOUSE.

County Clerk Belot at noon today forwarded to the authorities at Richmond the papers and finding of the commission of lunacy which declared Carl P. Swain insane. The commission consisted of Justice France and Doctors Mikesell and English. The verdict was rendered late on Saturday night.

Sarah E. Ransbottom, recently adjudged insane, will be taken to Richmond tomorrow morning by a deputy sheriff, accompanied by relatives of the family.

William Morton, of the auditor's office, has returned from a two weeks outing, during which he took in everything from Petoskey to Chicago.

A. C. Neirman, the elevator man at the court house, who is also a deputy sheriff, arrested a couple of young men who were on the court house tower amusing themselves by seeing how far they could spit. They succeeded in landing a load or two of tobacco juice on the dresses of ladies on a corridor below them. Sheriff Stout reprimanded the fellows and allowed them to go after making apologies to the victims of their filthiness.

The commissioners were in session today arranging for the court house dedication, particulars of which will be found in another column.

THE MARRIAGE RECORD

The marriage license record today showed up about the only news there was obtainable about the county building. August Haensch and Mary Haensch were licensed to re-enter the married state after a short period of contemplation. June 26 they were man and wife, but on the following day they were two of a different kind, having been divorced on the complaint of the woman. The other license out of the usual order was issued to Nick Boyer and Mary Kesler. The bride is the divorced wife of Dr. A. J. Kesler and this is her third venture on the matrimonial sea. Mr. and Mrs. Kesler were divorced in May of last year and with the suit went $1,500 alimony to Mrs. Kesler. The other two licenses were unsensational and were to Joseph Pembleton and Tillie Etgen and to Clarence Donaldson and Myrtle A. Morrow.

COME HOME

If you are out of the city on your vacation---come home and come down to our store Tuesday morning. You who are at home, come. Why? Our fall and winter stock is here on the second floor, marked and ready to come down. We have but a small stock of spring and summer goods left, and we have decided to make them walking advertisements for our store. We could close out the remainder of our stock to some merchants for a third more than we are going to sell them to our customers, but this is not merely a sale to get rid of the goods and make room for our fall and winter stock. Our stock is small. We marked our goods last spring so you would buy them, and we are not in need of room, nor have we got to have the money. But we will have it known and impressed on the people of Fort Wayne that "PATTERSON" can and does sell high-grade goods for much less than any other store in Northern Indiana.

FINAL PREPARATIONS FOR VENETIAN NIGHT.

Tomorrow's Display Promises to Eclipse All Past Effort—Division Captains Chosen.

Tomorrow evening is the date for the annual Venetian Night carnival at Rome City, and if the weather man will only remain on good behavior that resort will see one of the greatest crowds in the history of Sylvan lake events.

Pretty nearly everybody is going, and while cottagers are hurrying forward preparations for their display, officials of the Grand Rapids and Indiana railroad are marshalling in this city every available passenger coach on the system. Nearly two hundred people went to Rome City on the morning train today to engage quarters and attend to other details for the big water carnival tomorrow night. Huge loads of decorating material, fireworks and other paraphernalia have been going northward for several days, and all previous celebrations are to be eclipsed in magnitude and splendor by tomorrow's display.

A rate of seventy-five cents is offered by the Grand Rapids for those who desire to go to Rome City on the morning train tomorrow. Tickets at the special Venetian Night rate of fifty cents for the round trip will be placed on sale immediately after the departure of train No. 7 tomorrow morning. These are good on any of the special trains, which begin leaving at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon and continue at hourly intervals until evening.

Division captains for the row-boat fleet have been selected as follows: No. 1, Spring Beach, John Landenberger, captain; No. 2, Rome City, W. A. Williams, captain; No. 3, assembly grounds, W. J. Vesey, captain; No. 4, South Bluffs, A. J. Peterson, captain; No. 5, North Bluffs, James McKay, captain; No. 6, Sylvan Point, Robert Fox, captain.

W. H. H. Peltier, of this city, will officiate as flag lieutenant of this squadron.

BASE BALL

Logansport came up here yesterday with a base ball team and between 300 and 400 loud-talking enthusiasts, who noised it about before the game that at least three or four street sweepers would be necessary to decently gather up the scattered remains of the Shamrock ball club after the artists from the Bridge city got through devastating things. A great deal of balky confidence, which might as well have been left unhitched, was tied up to the genial Mr. Ream, who once pitched for the Fort Wayne club when the Inter-State was working, and who was to do the heavy work in the general plan of annihilation. Somehow everything seemed to go wrong with Logansport after the game commenced, and while the rooters kept at their task faithfully and diligently, there wasn't anything doing in the way of runs on the visitor's end of the scoreboard. The Shamrocks won the game in the first inning and were never in danger after that. Ream pitched cleverly enough, but with 9 errors piled up behind him he was left hopelessly in the hole. The Shamrocks succeeded in getting 6 into their column, but good hitting and commendable head work by Robbins won the game easily. The score:

IN THE LEAGUES.

Chicago has been diddling with bad luck for several days in both leagues. On Saturday the Americans lost as did the Nationals and yesterday the Nationals lost two games. The result is that in the Americans the champions are now in fourth place, although an enterprising cotemporary still has them at the head of the list. Chicago would be happy if 'twere only true. The prize game of the season was played at St. Louis, where St. Louis and Brooklyn played eighteen innings to a tie with 7 each. At the end of the second inning the game stood 4 to 5 in favor of Brooklyn and after that there were 23 half innings in which no runs were made. Cincinnati gave Pittsburg another drubbing and 15,000 people saw the trick done. Since Brush has been out of base ball in Cincinnati the crowds have been tremendous, while before, with Brush in, the attendance has been beggarly. Chicago turned out 12,000 people to see New York trim the home team, but it took 14 innings to do it the first time. In the American association Louisville took a double header and strangest of all, Toledo won both games from Kansas City, and is now so safely placed in the ranking that it is doubtful whether her percentage will fall below .300 during the balance of the season; she has a cinch on last place, however. Yesterday's attendance in three cities of the National league was 38,300; in the American no games were played and in the American association three cities turned out 13,601. The results are given below:

REMARKABLE CURE OF DYSENTERY.

Mr. J. B. Davis, who resides three miles north of this place has a son fourteen or fifteen years of age who was taken with dysentery last December, and to our knowledge was treated for four or five months by physicians of splendid reputation. The boy grew worse all the time and got so he could scarcely walk across the room. About thirty days ago we sold Mr. Davis a 25-cent bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy on a guarantee. In about a week he came back for a second bottle and stated that his son was a great deal better than he had been since December. The second bottle has cured him of the trouble entirely.—G. E. THE MARKETS.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 18.—Grain showed good strength at the opening today on wet weather both in this country and England and on the very poor grading. September wheat started a shade to ⅛@¼c up at 70c to 70⅛c and soon sold to 70⅜@70½c. Receipts of winter wheat were liberal, especially in the southwest, but out of 355 cars received here, only 3 graded contract. There were gains in the spring wheat region and some doubt was expressed over coming weather. This started fear over grading in spring harvests and bulls renewed the argument that the present condition in September was a fair chance for squeezing the shorts. World's shipments were 7,304,000 bushels against 11,344,000 bushels last year. Breadstuffs on passage increased 1,648,000 bushels. Minneapolis and Duluth reported 323 cars received, making a total for the three northwestern points of 678 cars against 598 last week and 645 a year ago.

Wheat was bought fairly until September sold at 70½c. Then, regardless of heavy decreases in the visible supply and 1,020,000 bushels cleared at the seaboard, September broke badly and sold at 69c. Heavy movement, 465 cars expected here tomorrow, was the principal cause. September closed weak, ⅞c lower, at 69@69¼c.

Wet weather, especially in Iowa, and fairly firm cables put strength into corn. Receipts were very small at 43 cars, 9 of contract grade. Congestion in September caused nervousness and shorts covered. September started unchanged to ⅛c up at 51¼c to 51⅜c and sold to 52c.

Corn held to its conscious strength until September sold at 52¼c. Then the supporters sold freely and on the narrowness of the market September fell back to 51⅛c, closing barely firm, ⅜c up, at 51½c.

The wet weather was too wet for good grading in oats and more rain was predicted. Out of 261 cars received today only 20 were contract. Shorts bought freely and September which started ¼c to ⅜c up at 32½c to 32¾c sold to 32⅞@32½c.

Provisions started easy on outside liquidation in far deliveries. Good support, however, and a steady hog market brought good advances. September pork started 5c down at $15.87½ and sold to $16.00; September lard unchanged at $10.20 and advanced to $10.32½, and September ribs unchanged at $9.02½ and sold to $9.75.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, Aug. 18.—The tone of the opening stock market was decidedly irregular. Toledo, St. Louis and Western was lifted 2 points and the preferred over a point and a few of the southwesterns showed a hardening tendency. Otherwise prices were shaded. The grangers and Pacifics opened lower and there were sharp fractional declines in Norfolk and Western and Sugar.

Stocks were feverish, but the usual leaders moved narrowly on small dealings. Toledo, St. Louis and Western advanced to 32½ and then reacted 2 points, but the preferred was firm at the best. American Grass Twine rose 2 points and lost half of it, while Anaconda jumped 3. A large demand set in later for Louisville and it improved 2¼ to 154¼, with some slight effect elsewhere. Illinois Central gained 1¼ and Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis declined as much.

Prices declined quite generally well below Saturday's close when the traders sold Brooklyn Transit and took profits in Louisville and Illinois Central. These stocks fell back a point or more and Missouri Pacific, St. Paul, Union Pacific, New York Central, Pennsylvania and Louisville large fractions. Texas and Pacific lost the best part of a point rise and American Express broke 4¾. American Telephone and Telegraph sold a point higher and Western Union and Twin City Rapid Transit as much lower. Louisville was rushed up again to the highest before noon, causing the general list to steady in spots.

Bonds were irregular.

The active issues were heavy in sympathy with stocks. The Central of Georgia income issues declined from 1 to 3½, the first incomes scoring the maximum loss, on the reduction in the annual interest from a 5 to a 3 per cent basis.

The Jefferson avenue home in this city is left to his widow, and she is also given a life interest in the Iglehard property at Manchester-by-the-Sea, Mass. Gifts of $1,000 each are made to his son-in-law, daughters-in-law and nephews and nieces. Three of his former confidential men, George M. Black, Chas. Moore and Richard Rice, are left $5,000 each. All other employes in the Detroit office are left $250 each. Bequests of $100 and $200 are made to all the family servants.

All the rest of his property is bequeathed to the senator's wife and to his sons, W. C. McMillan, Philip McMillan and Francis W. McMillan, and to their survivors, as trustees, to hold until the death of the last survivor of the senator's children, unless they see fit to sooner terminate the trust.

The trustees are to pay the senator's wife during her lifetime one-half of the net income of the trust property, less the amount of income which shall be derived from certain property valued at about $500,000 heretofore given to his wife, and the remainder to his children, W. TWO PROMOTIONS

JOHN DALMAN AND G. L. WALL FORTUNATE ONES.

FORMER GOES TO C., A. AND C. LATTER TO THE ERIE AND ASHTABULA ROAD.

NEW TRACKS AT THE SHOPS

WILL MAKE EASY WORK OF A HERETOFORE HARD TASK.

D. F. Crawford, superintendent of motive power of the Pennsylvania, makes the announcement of the promotion of two gentlemen well and favorably known in this city. John Dalman, who was general foreman at New Castle of the Erie and Ashtabula division, has been transferred to the Cleveland, Akron and Columbus, with the title of master mechanic, with headquarters at Mt. Vernon, Ohio. George L. Wall has been appointed general foreman of the Erie and Ashtabula, succeeding Mr. Dalman. The duties of this office are practically that of a master mechanic and during Mr. Dalman's administration he attended all the meetings and was considered as one of the master mechanics. The change becomes effective at once and Mr. Wall left last night for New Castle and this morning assumed the duties of his office. His family will follow in a few days. John Dalman is a Fort Wayne boy, being the son of John Dalman, sr., ex-county treasurer. He has been with the Pennsylvania company about three years, serving a portion of that time in the capacity of assistant superintendent of motive power under Mr. Crawford. The interval between graduation from a polytechnical college and his service with the Pennsylvania Mr. Dalman spent in the motive power department of the Lehigh Valley road. Mr. Wall came here about five years ago, shortly after leaving college, and has been employed in various capacities in the shops and on the road ever since. On account of his knowledge of mechanics and general information he is a very useful man. He served as foreman of one of the departments of the shops for several weeks this summer and during his connection with the works he has filled other responsible positions. Both men are popular and their advancement is welcomed by all the railway and shopmen who know them.

A GREAT EXCURSION DAY.

All the Fort Wayne roads engaged in the Sunday excursion business established a new record in the way of travelers yesterday. The aggregate travel in and out of the city on the special Sunday rate tickets was 4,066, distributed as follows: To Dayton and Cincinnati, on the Findlay, 329; to Bellevue, on special Nickel Plate train, 115; east on regular and west on regular trains on same road, 282; to Chicago on Pittsburg, 205; to Toledo on Lake Shore, 75; to Toledo on the Wabash, 248; to Detroit, on the Wabash, 143; to Rome City, on the Grand Rapids, 650; from Lafayette on special Wabash train, 585; from Peru and Huntington on special Wabash train, second section, 237; from Huntington alone on regular Wabash trains, exclusive of foregoing, 210; from Jackson, on the Lake Shore, 741; from Indianapolis, on the Lake Erie, 300; from Connersville on the Lake Erie, 449, and from points on the Findlay, Fort Wayne and Western, 90. The Wabash made a special effort to get business out of Huntington and as a result the number from that city, including both those on the regular and the special trains was 383. The Lake Shore's Toledo excursion was something new to Fort Wayne people, but the company is highly pleased with the result. The train entered Toledo with 601 passengers. Passenger Agent Winans is also inclined to be jubilant over the result of the C. H. & D. excursion, the total travel into Dayton and Cincinnati on that train being 819. There were plenty of coaches and seats for all, however, and the big crowd was well handled and all were good natured and seemed to enjoy the trip.

WILL HAVE A FIELD DAY.

This evening the Relief Union of the Fort Wayne Electric company will hold a meeting to decide some questions, chiefly the date, concerning the association's annual field day sports. The sentiment for a date in early September seems to be general, but the announcement of the day cannot be made until after the meeting tonight.

FELL AT HIS DESK.

Earl Reeves, a clerk in the Wabash freight office, is in St. Joseph hospital, where he was taken suffering from an attack of heart disease at 10 o'clock last Saturday. The attack came while the young man was at work at his desk and without a moment's notice he sank to the floor, perfectly helpless. He is improving and will soon be able to resume work. Mrs. Reeves, the mother of the sick man, came up from her home in Muncie yesterday and spent several hours at the bedside of her son.

THREE MEN HURT.

James Leach, a boilermaker employed at the Pittsburg shops, is laid up with a very painful foot. The member was injured by a rusty nail, which penetrated it a considerable distance.

Clyde U. Hench, apprentice at the Wabash shops, went to the company's Springfield hospital this morning to receive treatment from the oculist. Clyde had an eye injured by a piece of metal getting into it last Saturday.

PUTTING IN NEW TRACKS.

Stakes were driven this morning for the three tracks that are to be put in at the east car shops to facilitate the handling of steel underframes for cars. Each track will be about 1,000 feet long and so arranged that the big traveling crane can pass down among the tiers of frames and pick up any one of the pieces at will. These under-frames weigh 14,000 pounds each and are hard to handle by present methods.

CAIRNS WON THE FOOT RACE.

The venerable James Cairns, one of the most popular members of the Caledonian society, who won the foot race for old men at Huntington last Saturday, will be seventy-six years old March 7 next. His contestants, Capt. Allan Dougall and James Gillie, who are quite active for men over fifty years, are "out of their class" in a foot race with Uncle Jimmy. Mr. Cairns is a machinist and for many years he was employed in the Pittsburg shops. A year ago last January, when the company put its pension system in operation, Mr. Cairns was retired, much to his disgust. In conversation with a former shopmate this morning he said: "Had I known what was up when the company took a census of its employes I believe I would have 'fibbed' as regards my age. I consider myself able to do a good day's work yet." Father Time has been kind to Mr. Cairns, he bearing the appearance of a man less than sixty. Mr. Cairns last week received a letter from his brother in Scotland, whom he had not seen nor heard from in fifty years. They parted when their mother died, Mr. Cairns coming to America and his brother going into England, and they were never able to learn the whereabouts of each other afterwards. Alexander Henderson, who visited Scotland last spring, saw the brother and told him of James Cairns, and from this information the brothers were placed in communication with each other.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

A. W. Seeley has been re-employed as a brakeman on the Nickel Plate.

The northwestern farmers and elevator men are promised a reduction in grain rates and President James J. Hill, of the Northwestern, states that the new rate will go into effect this week.

The Pennsylvania wreck crew was called to Lima yesterday to clear up a freight wreck. The air brakes closed down with such force that two cars in the train had their ends stove in by bumping together violently.

Supt. J. W. Hunter, of the Grand Rapids and Indiana road, returned from Burt Lake Saturday night. He spent ten days in that resort, stopping at the Colonial, and says the sojourn was replete with rest and enjoyment.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hepp have left the city for a visit with friends in Chicago, Logansport and elsewhere. Mr. Hepp is foreman of the Wabash blacksmith shop and during his absence that duty is being performed by David Murray.

The Gaskill-Mundy Carnival show, which is giving exhibitions at Elkhart this week, passed through the city, over the Pennsylvania and the Lake Shore roads, yesterday. There were thirteen cars in the special train which carried the showmen and their luggage.

R. C. Chase, collector for A. G. Porter lodge No. 141, B. of L. F., will leave tomorrow on a vacation trip which will consume about two weeks. He will be accompanied on the journey by his family. A portion of the time will be spent at Rome City.

Frank Wilke, of Elwood, Ind., is visiting relatives in the city and adjacent country. He is now employed in tin plate mills. Several years ago he worked in the Pittsburg blacksmith shop, being a helper to the late John Slater. Mr. Wilke called at the smith shop this morning to see his old friends.

At a meeting of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen yesterday C. F. House, a Pittsburg brakeman, was taken into the order. A message was also read announcing the death of one of the members of the lodge, W. S. Eckert, which occurred in Duluth, Minn. When the deceased resided in this city he was employed on the Pittsburg road.

Switchmen Perb Davis and George Sunley resumed work at the Pittsburg yards this morning. Mr. Davis had been in Crestline on business and Mr. Sunley was in Sioux City, Iowa, attending the christening exercises of his little nephew, the son of a favorite sister. The little fellow was named after his uncle.

There is apparently no diminution in the number of contracts that are being placed for erecting houses in the city and particularly in the residence portion of the city. Saturday Contractor Frank Coblantz began assembling the material for a house in the Bash addition, and this morning the material for a house to be erected by Contractor Joseph Bundy was delivered at the corner of Creighton avenue and Force streets.

Indianapolis Journal: "The activity in the stock of the Toledo, St. Louis and Western is attracting attention, but the cause has not been announced. The significant feature about the advance is the fact that it is the natural link for connecting the St. Louis and San Francisco and the Chicago and Eastern Illinois, and combined would practically duplicate the most important part of the Wabash system."

Capt. H. Stoll yesterday received a bulletin of the following changes in the Pennsylvania police department: Lieutenant E. S. Powell has been transferred from the Chicago Terminal to the Panhandle at St. Louis; John Lund has been appointed Powell's successor, and J. R. Brennen has been appointed lieutenant, vice John Rossiter, promoted. The bulletin does not mention the station to which Rossiter is assigned.

Alexander Hurford, of Canton, Ohio, who died last week, aged 85 years, was one of the promoters of the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago road and for years was one of the officers.

Councilman William Hosey, of the Pittsburg machine shop, is taking a vacation.

Supt. E. A. Barnes, of the Electric works, returned from a business trip to Chicago Saturday night.

Frank O'Ryan is spending a couple days at Rome City. He is assistant foreman of the testing room at the Electric works.

Machinist Jacob Erlenbaugh, of the Wabash shops, and his family, are entertaining John Burchfield and family, of Huntington.

J. P. Tierney, night yardmaster of the Erie at Huntington, and his wife, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Brooks over Sunday.

John E. Smith, a hammersmith at the Wabash shops, reported for work this morning, after an absence of two weeks. He had a leg injured.

A car load to Beloit, Wis., and a car load to Nicholsonville, Ky., were chief among the machinery shipments from the Electric works today.

Mrs. C. D. Sheumann, wife of a painter in the Wabash shops, has returned from Chicago, where she spent three weeks with relatives and friends.

Charles DeRome, a machinist, who was injured six weeks ago by a piece of pipe falling down the elevator and striking him, was able to report for duty this morning.

Next Saturday William Miller and Ed Kickley, machinists at the Wabash shops, will leave on a ten days' jaunt, which will include a visit to Kansas City and St. Louis.

Passenger Engineer Ross Germain, of the Nickel Plate, is taking his summer vacation and Engineer Ed Wolf will preside at the throttle on trains 2 and 3 on the Fourth division in the meantime.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Fitzenberger returned to their home in Indianapolis this morning after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Kerlin. Mr. Fitzenberger is a conductor on the Peoria division of the Big Four road.

Edward F. Remmert, clerk and stenographer for Capt. H. Stoll, who is serving as a stenographer in the main office of the company at Pittsburg during the vacation term, was here yesterday to spend a few hours with his relatives.

Machinist Harry McCollem leaves next Saturday on a trip over the eastern division of the Wabash, stopping at Detroit, Buffalo and other important places on the road, looking after some special duties. He will be absent about a week.

The Wabash road, which runs within a few miles of Joliet, will build a spur into that city. The Illinois Central contemplates a similar spur. Joliet is quite an important manufacturing center and furnishes considerable freight business.

Fireman G. W. Erwin is getting ready to go to Chattanooga, where he will represent A. G. Porter lodge, No. 141, at the annual meeting of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen. He will probably be absent from the city three weeks on that occasion.

Road Foreman C. R. Cairney, of the Pennsylvania, has accepted the applications of G. F. Bucker, H. R. Reeve, A. F. Steven, C. E. Griffith, A. D. Holloway and C. E. Burgess as firemen and they are learning the road preparatory to entering active service.

Engineer E. C. Irish and Fireman John Miller, of Peru, came up here this morning to get passenger engine 621, which has been receiving general repairs in the Wabash shops. Mr. Irish was formerly employed on the Nickel Plate road and resided in this city.

The movement for a ten hour work day among trainmen is spreading and petitions are daily being presented to the management of the railways asking for such reduction. Last week the train employes of the Philadelphia and Reading sent in a petition.

Between now and Nov. 1 the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific will receive ten new passenger trains of five cars each, when the company expects to open its new service from Chicago to the Pacific, via the Southern Pacific from El Paso. The cost of the trains is $1,500,000.

F. J. Burns, assistant foreman of the Pittsburg roundhouse, and his wife leave tomorrow for Coldwater, Mich., where they will join their little son, who went to that city immediately at the close of the school term. From Coldwater the family will go into northern Michigan to remain a week.

MALARIA An Invisible Enemy to Health

Means bad air, and whether it comes from the low lands and marshes of the country, or the filthy sewers and drain pipes of the cities and towns, its effect upon the human system is the same.

These atmospheric poisons are breathed into the lungs and taken up by the blood, and the foundation of some long, debilitating illness is laid. Chills and fever, chronic dyspepsia, torpid and enlarged liver, kidney troubles, jaundice and biliousness are frequently due to that invisible foe, Malaria. Noxious gases and unhealthy matter collect in the system because the liver and kidneys fail to act, and are poured into the blood current until it becomes so polluted and sluggish that the poisons literally break through the skin, and carbuncles, boils, abscesses, ulcers and various eruptions of an indolent character appear, depleting the system, and threatening life itself.

The germs and poisons that so oppress and weaken the body and destroy the life-giving properties of the blood, rendering it thin and watery, must be overcome and carried out of the system before the patient can hope to get rid of Malaria and its effects.

SSS S. S. S. does this and quickly produces an entire change in the blood, reaching every organ and stimulating them to vigorous, healthy action. S. S. S. possesses not only purifying but tonic properties, and the general health improves, and the appetite increases almost from the first dose. There is no Mercury, Potash, Arsenic or other mineral in S. S. S. It is strictly and entirely a vegetable remedy.

Write us about your case, and our physicians will gladly help you by their advice to regain your health. Book on blood and skin diseases sent free.

A. C. Davis, the electrical engineer of the Pittsburg, was in Winona over Sunday.

F. B. McDonnell, machinist, was in Chicago yesterday visiting his best girl.

V. Schleyer, A. Gerard and Gus Trankach, of the Pittsburg shops, are sick and off duty. J. H. Neff is taking a leave of absence to look after some private matters.

T. J. Rudabaugh, foreman of the Pittsburg paint shop, who has been sick a few days, is recovering and was able to go to his office this morning for the first time in three or four days.

Miss John McFerran, of Birmingham, Ala., who is visiting in this city, went to Waterloo Saturday to spend a week with her mother. Mr. McFerran is a locomotive engineer.

Boone Ickes, a machinist, took a position in the Wabash shops today and has been assigned to the night gang until there is an opening in the day force. Mr. Ickes comes from Joliet, where he worked in railway shops.

The Pittsburg blacksmith shop is in good shape at present as regards workmen. Al Throckmorton, Harry W. Kozna, A. Ryan, W. O. France and R. W. Shaw, who were off duty on account of sickness, resumed their respective places in that shop this morning.

While Assyrians are good workmen and industrious, they do not seem to have due regard for the rights of their employers and will quit their positions without the slightest notice of such intention. A good many of these people are employed in the foundries in the city, and aside from their liability to quit work at any moment, they are good laborers. Five of them quit at the Bass shops this morning.

TOMORROW MORNING

We will begin a sale that will continue eleven days, if the goods last that long. Many suits will be sold from $1.00 to $6.00 less than actual cost. You say that this is impossible. Don't say too much until you know. Our "ads." do not lie.

WAS BADLY STUNG BY BEES

G. W. SWINEHART GOT INTO A LIVELY SKIRMISH.

Drove Into a Nest of Bumblebees and Suffered Severely—Horses Also Badly Stung.

Myriads of bumblebees proved themselves just as busy as the other kind Saturday, when G. W. Swinehart, residing on the Bash farm, southwest of the city, unwittingly drove into a nest of the insects. Before he could escape he was badly stung and it will be some time before he recovers from the effects of his painful experience.

Mr. Swinehart says the bees are when his team of horses disturbed a nest in the field the bees quickly began putting up the liveliest sort of a fight. Dozens of the insects swarmed about Mr. Swinehart's head, neck and hands, and pretty nearly every individual bee sank his harpoon into the unfortunate man before he could escape. Mr. Swinehart's hands, face and neck are badly swollen. A young man named Cory, who went to Swinehart's relief, also suffered severely.

When the bees attacked the horses the animals became frantic in a moment, but refused to be driven forward for the reason that at every movement the bees hit them in a new place. It was finally necessary to nearly cover the horses with hay in order to get them out of the way of the bees. The horses are stung in dozens of places.

WILL APPEAR SEPT. 2.

"THE SENTINEL'S" BIG PROSPERITY EDITION.

On Tuesday, Sept. 2nd, The Sentinel will issue from 15,000 to 20,000 copies of the daily edition of sixteen pages each, and it will be made an issue of many special features, giving the city a fitting advertisement. This large edition will be distributed throughout the country as the subscribers may elect. The trades and industries of Fort Wayne must be advanced in the march of progress and The Sentinel will do its share towards accomplishing that end.

There is doubtless more inquiry about Indiana in general and particularly Fort Wayne, at present than at any previous time in its history. People are anxious for information and it seems almost impossible to supply the demand by literature that will be read, not thrown aside. Other cities are making an extra effort for immigration, and especially factories, and we should not be in the rear. Our city is now enjoying an almost unprecedented degree of prosperity. No commercial or industrial enterprise is languishing. Our population is rapidly increasing and this increase is being as rapidly absorbed in the various pursuits which they here find open to them. At no time in all our past has our future seemed so auspicious as in the live and growing present.

The compilers of the edition are meeting everywhere with encouragement. Already several thousand copies have been ordered, and if the present ratio keeps up The Sentinel will be forced to issue many more thousands than was originally intended.

For the compilers The Sentinel asks that those from whom they seek information give it cheerfully, as it will redound to the benefit of the city and indirectly the giver. Fort Wayneites should help make Fort Wayne's "PROSPERITY EDITION" give evidence of prosperity in every detail.
